The Post Radio Time Table

THE ELECTION RETURNS will take over every radio station in the land. First reports will be from New York, Chicago, Cleveland, Denver and San Francisco over WMAL at 1:45 p. m. From 6 on the stations will loosen up as the early reports trickle in.

This column suggests setting the dial to WJSV, on which reports will be heard from The Post city room during the course of the evening in regard to the results in nearby Maryland and Virginia. Robert C. Albright, William V. Nessley and Joseph Mathias will be among The Post staff writers heard. This barrage may be expected from 9 through the finish, from which hour WJSV has canceled all of its commercial bookings, planning to relieve the bare stretches with studio music. Speaking for the Columbia network will be Albert Warner, interpreting Senatorial, Congressional and Guberna-torial contests; Bob Trout, tallying up the latest returns, and Elmer Davis, discussing the Presidential race as it reaches its climax.

OTHER THINGS (believe it, or not):

9:15 a. m., WRC—The Boyd triplets, Lena, Mildred and Edith Boyd, daughters of the Panamanian minister to the United States, sing a group of Latin-American numbers for Mary Mason.

8:30 p. m., WJSV—Remember when elections in Mexico used to bring forth headlines like this: "Elections Quiet in Mexico; 25 Killed?" Anyway, the First Nighters have a play called "See Mexico and Die!"

8:30, WMAL—It's a reunion for the Information Please quartet which has been heard most often: John Kieran, F. P. A., Oscar Levant and Christopher Morley.

9, WRC—Cliff Nazarro, Walter Abel, Denis O'Keefe and Dick Purcell join Pat Morison, Lillian Cornell and Ellen Drew for the Battle of the Sexes.
