R. N. Qualley to Pay Tribute to Royalty

Norse immigrants of a generation ago who are now American citizens will meet by the thousands to pay homage to the crown prince and princess of Norway in Minneapolis Sunday, and among them will be at least one from Madison.

R. N. Qualley, 1040 Jenifer st., president of the Valdres Sambald, a group of former residents of the valley of Valdres, Norway, will be on hand to cheer Olaf and Martha of Norway and to preside over a reunion of men and women from his home valley at an all-day meeting on Saturday climaxed by a banquet at night.

The Valdres is one of the five great valleys of Norway, each of which has its own sambald of old residents in the United States.

Ricksha Men Upset Traffic

SHANGHAI —(U.P.)—Shanghai's 38,000 ricksha pullers give the International Settlement traffic courts more work than all other Shanghai drivers and pedestrians combined, according to municipal police figures. An average of 500 pullers appears in court each month to answer for breaches of the traffic regulations.

A dress worn by Miss Florence Horsburgh, the first woman Member of Parliament to have the honor of making an address in reply to the King's Speech, has been placed on exhibition in the London Museum.
