Story Of Million Dollar Courthouse To Be Related

Frank Munn To Sing New Composition On Waltz Time Program: Popular "Ave Maria" Will Be Presented

A two-story brick courthouse in Pioche, Nevada, that cost the taxpayers nearly a million dollars over a period of 65 years, will be the subject of the Death Valley Days episode Friday at 8:30 p. m. over WEAF.

The initial cost of the structure was about $88,000, since the bricks were imported from Scotland and water necessary to mix mortar cost 75 cents a gallon at Pioche in 1872. What ran the ultimate cost up to nearly a million dollars was the complicated financing thru one bond issue after another. By the time the costly little building was finally cleared of debt in 1937, it was so old that it was pronounced dangerous and condemned.

The story of Lotta Crabtree, originally scheduled for Friday will be dramatized instead on July 14.

The [illegible] introduced by Munn in a recent Waltz Time program, is being repeated in response to numerous listener requests. The orchestra will open the program with McIntyre's "The One Rose" followed by "It Seems Like Old Times," sung by Munn and the chorus. Other numbers by the orchestra and chorus will [illegible] stage." Berlin's "I Poured My Heart into a Song," Schulz's "Swanee Blossoms," Strauss's "Blue Danube" waltz, and Ravel's "A Boy and A Girl Were Dancing."

Gounod's ever-popular "Ave Maria" will be sung by Lucille Manners, soprano star of the Cities Service program, as a highlight of the broadcast with Ross Graham, baritone, the ensemble, and the orchestra, conducted by Dr. Frank Black, Friday from 7:30 to 8:00 p. m., over WEAF. "My Johan" by Grieg and "Smoke Gets in Your Eyes" by Jerome Kern, will be Miss Manners' other solos. Graham will be heard in Messenger's "Long Ago in Alcala," and, with Miss Manners in Romberg's "Wanting You." Selections by the orchestra will include "In the Hall of the Mountain King" from Grieg's "Peer Gynt" suite, Dr. Black's transcription of "Bright Shines the Moon" by Lefkowitch, "Los Toros" from Lacombe's "La Feria" suite, and "Orchids in the Moonlight" by Youmans. The ensemble will be heard in Berlin's "Marie," Fibich's "Moonlight Madonna" and "Ah! Sweet Mystery of Life" from Herbert's "Naughty Marietta." The full-hour broadcast also will include another episode in the dramatic series, "The Romance of Oil."
