Radio: Bartholomew, De Havilland, Brent on Guestar List

Parties, says Harriet Parsons, are the place to find what's going on in Hollywood. Radio's girl reporter of the cinema city would trade a bushel of tipsters for time to go to more parties. There, she says, stars relax and tell the human interest stories which a broadcaster seeks. Harriet is heard on the NBC-blue network Wednesday nights.

The Vilas Monarchs and Bach's Grocery sextets, undefeated leaders in the second half of the Intermediate Hockey league schedule, remained deadlocked Tuesday night by turning in close victories. Vilas defeated subdued Gerb's Sporting Goods, 5-2, and Bach's whipped Vilas Rangers, 6-5.

South Side, winner of the first half title, won its first game of the second round by defeating the East Side Rangers, 7-1.

The Intermediate league will continue play tonight and Thursday in an effort to complete the schedule by this weekend in order that the playoffs for the city championship may begin. South Side is a certainty for one of the final berths by virtue of winning the first round of play with an undefeated record. The second round race found the South Side slipping badly; the race is wide open with the Vilas Monarchs a slight favorite to oppose South Side in the city playoffs.

Two goals in the first two minutes of play gave the Vilas Monarchs a lead over a puzzled Berg's sextet at Vilas Park, but a determined attack enabled Bergs to tie the count by the end of the first period. Jack Miller scored both of the Vilas goals in 1 minute and 1:30. Harold Klien speared the first Berg goal in 12 minutes and Bob Van Etten tied the score. Both teams went scoreless throughout the second period. With less than five minutes to play remaining in the final period the Collentine brothers, Pat and John, broke loose to score three goals for a 5-2 win.

Bach's Grocery outlasted the Vilas Rangers in a free scoring game that saw the lead changing hands at several times. Ken Busse, Ranger wing, scored shortly after the opening faceoff. Ken Osmond, Bach wing, retaliated within the first minute. Bach's took a 2-1 lead early in the second period on a goal by Osmond, and boosted it to 3-1 when Frank Briggs scored. Curly Disch scored for Vilas, but Jimmy Klienbeinz gave Bach's a 4-2 lead on a short try.

Leo Reible made it 4-3 shortly before the period ended. Ken Busse put the Rangers in the lead in the final period when he scored two goals. Windy Cox tied the count for Bach's, and Frank Briggs scored the winning goal in the last two minutes of play.

Pelly Phillips, South Side center, led his team to its first second round victory when he made three goals. Billy Werner and Don O'Dair, wingmen, accounted for the remaining tallies in the 7-1 victory. Kingstone scored the lone goal for the East Rangers in the second period. The lineups:
