Four Musical Shows Dominate Tonights Air, Ripley Changes Time

Cal Tinney, youthful Oklahoma humorist, each week presents outstanding personalities from all walks of life in his "If I Had the Chance" programs over the NBC blue network. And, says Cal, you are always surprised to find out what they really wanted to become.

Musical broadcasts again dominate the airwaves tonight. The Grant Park concert with the Chicago Symphony orchestra on the bandstand heads the parade with the regular commercial shows following.

"Believe-It-or-Not" with Robert Ripley changes to Monday nights commencing today. The show replaces the spot formerly occupied by the Burns and Allen show.

Tonight's and Tuesdaytime highlights selected and classified:

Sunday's Scores

Jefferson 7, Lake Mills 2; Watertown Goslings 6, Waterloo 3; Fort Atkinson 9, Watertown Legion 1; Elkhorn 8, Genesee 5.

Jefferson's title-bound baseball team continued its pace out in front in the Central Wisconsin baseball league Sunday afternoon as it rang up its 11th win in 12 startst o maintain its one game lead over the Watertown Goslings for the undisputed lead. The Jeffs defeated the Lake Mills Sandy Beaches, 7-2, while the Goslings kept pace with a 6-3 win over the Waterloo McKays.

Through its defeat Lake Mills slipped into a tie for third place with the Fort Atkinson Merchants who trimmed the Watertown Legion, 9-1. Elkhorn hoisted itself into a sixth place tie with the Legion by thumping Genesee's cellar team, 8-5.

Jefferson's first place margin is uncertain, however, as Waterloo filed a protest on its defeat to the Goslings with league officials Sunday night. The protest was based on decision in the eighth in which it was ruled that Werner Feutz, Waterloo batter, had tipped the ball in attempting to bunt. The umpire in charge refused to allow a runner to score, changing his decision after conversation with spectators.

For seven innings Fred (Butch) Zoellick, Gosling ace, blanked Waterloo, but the McKays found themselves to tie the score in the eighth and would have taken the lead except for the umpire's verdict. The Goslings came back with three hits and bunched them with two errors to score three runs in the ninth to win. The McKays had only five hits, Dean Higgins leading with two, while Wally Higgins was nicked for eight.

Jefferson pounded out 12 hits and Ed Lehman allowed Lake Mills only six as it won to remain as sole leader. The Jeffs got off to a 4-1 lead in the first and never were in danger. Bob Morgan had three hits and Ralph Schicker, the league's leading hitter, had two in the Jefferson attack. Lynn Springer and Bob Woelffer had two hits each for Lake Mills.

"Steamer" Roglitz, Fort Atkinson hurler, also gave up only six hits as his team defeated the Legion. The lone Legion run was unearned. Roglitz fanned 14. A walk and four hits, including a double by Lehman, started Fort off with four runs in the first frame. "Zede" Woelffer and Kohl paced Fort's attack with three hits each.

Genesee outhit Elkhorn, 13-9, but a six-run rally by the winners in the fourth proved to be too much for the Genesee team to overcome. The box scores:
