

RADIO TO JOIN IN TRIBUTE TO MOTHERS OF WORLD

Maternal Love and Sacrifice Will Serve as Theme for Many of Broadcast Offerings

SUNDAY 'TIMES' COMICS OF THE AIR, KHJ, 8 A.M.
World-wide News, 10 p.m.

BY JOHN S. DAGGETT

Mother will reign supreme today as perhaps never before in the history of the world. Radio is rapidly becoming the mentor of all ills and difficulties of the world. In the future it will serve the true purpose of its conception—the amelioration of world troubles and the establishment of world peace.

No finer theme can be found or broadcast than that of mother love and this will be the theme of today's broadcast. While there are not any particularly outstanding programs dedicated to Mother's Day, it is a foregone conclusion that the thought will be presented on all broadcast stations throughout the world. The white and the red carnations will be worn for the mothers who are living and those who have gone beyond. The impromptu words of announcers will serve as reminders of the sacrifices made by womankind to perpetuate life and history.

Radio reaches the human heart as does no other agency. This is evidenced by correspondence. Every Mother's Day listeners send in their favorite thoughts for the day. We learn through radio that anniversaries hold their place in the passing of time. We learn that patriotism is not dead, although flag-waving has been misapplied and has been belittled in American citizenship.

No man can gainsay the tribute of mother love. Through radio it has become an international urge.

We are presenting one of the many poems which arrived via the mail as a tribute to Mother's Day, an anonymous verse:

MY MOTHER

She carried me under her heart,
Loved me before I was born,
Took God's hand in hers and walked through the Valley of shadows that I might live;
Bathed me when I was helpless,
Clothed me when I was naked:
Gave me warm milk from her own body
When I was hungry.
Rocked me to sleep when I was weary.
Pillowed me on pillows softer than down, and sang to me in the voice of an angel;
Held my hand when I learned to walk;
Nursed me when I was sick;
Suffered with my sorrow;
Laughed with my joy;
Glowed with my triumph: and while I knelt at her side,
she taught my lips to pray.
Through all the days of my youth
she gave strength for my weakness, courage for my despair and hope to fill my hopeless heart:
Was loyal when others failed;
Was true, when tried by fire:
Was my friend when other friends
were gone:
Prayed for me through all the days
when flooded with sunshine
or saddened by shadows:
Loved me when I was unloved,
and led me into man's estate to walk triumphant on the king's highway and play
a manly part.
Though we lay down our lives for her we can never pay the debt we owe to a Christian mother.

So it is that today we are dedicating the thought of the radio column to "mothers," hoping that the significance of the thought will sink perhaps a little deeper into the heart of humanity.
