Dixon Show Now on Monday

PAUL DIXON'S variety show moves into the 9 p. m. spot tonight on WMAL-TV from its previous Wednesday spot. It moves latest as far as cast of "characters" is concerned.

PROFESSOR AHMED S. BOKHARI, Minister Plenipotentiary and U. N. representative from Pakistan, will be interviewed Monday night at 8:30 on WMAL-TV when "United or Not" moves to new time.

"STUDIO ONE" returns to the air tonight at 10 on WTOP-TV with a gripping story about two English girls who become entangled with a white slave ring when they answer an advertisement to work on a French farm for a retired Scottish minister. The story, "The Angelic Avengers" by Pierre

'Varieties' Return

"VERSATILE Varieties," a musical comedy show featuring children and starring Lady Iris Mountbatten as mistress of ceremonies, moves to ABC (WMAL-TV) Friday at 9:30 p. m. The show will alternate with "Tales of Tomorrow."

Operas Due in October

NBC'S SERIES of eight television opera productions for 1951-52 will be seen on the first Thursday evening of each month starting October 4 (WNBW, 11 p. m.).

As in the past two seasons, the operas will be given in English in specially prepared television productions. Dates for the productions are October 4, November 1, December 6, January 3, February 7, March 6, April 3 and May 1.

The opening opera on October 4 will be "I Pagliacci," by Leoncavallo. The production on November 1 will be "Pique Dame," by Tchaikovsky. Other operas in the schedule will be announced soon.

In addition to its own productions, the television opera department of NBC will prepare 10-minute opera segments for the "Kate Smith Hour," and the "Kate Smith Evening Hour," on dates to be announced. Last season several 10-minute opera scenes were given on the Kate Smith program.

DR. ROY K. Marshall's new book, "The Nature of Things,"—prepared, as is his NBC television program of the same name, for the layman—is in the bookstores.

In 22 chapters it explores the inside of atoms, radio activity, the atomic bomb, man-made rainbows, stellar energy, the motions of stars, rotation of the earth, isotopes, star clusters and man's place in the universe.

THE GRAPEVINE has it that Fred Allen may be back on TV on a regular basis this season.

Mildred Natwick — Lorna Lynn

Natwick Plays 'Mother'

Andrezel, will feature Maria Riva, actress daughter of Marlene Dietrich; Mary Sinclair, Richard Purdy and Murray Matheson. Worthington C. Miner is again producer of "Studio One," now entering its fourth season.

MILDRED NATWICK, best known for a comedy characterization in "Blithe Spirit," will play a serious role Monday night at 9:30 on WNBW when she appears in Somerset Maugham's "The Mother." This is the story of a woman who refused to allow her 12-year-old son to take the blame for the accidental killing of his father. She serves a 10-year prison term and emerges to find a difficult adjustment with her son. Joey Walsh and William Redfield will be featured with her.

LORNA LYNN, 21-year-old blonde singer, will be featured with Roland Young in "A Family Affair" Monday night at 8 on WTOP-TV. It's the story of a young Yale student who loves a band vocalist to the distress of his socially prominent family.

WITH TV SCREAMING how script-hungry it is, ABC has come up with a new series, "Author, Author," which is now going into its second week as a showcase for new writing talent. Playwright Marc Connolly, Pulitzer Prize-winning author of "The Green Pastures," acts as emcee. This week's production (WMAL-TV, Monday at 8 p. m.) will be "Angels of Distinction" by Edward Dudowicz. Judges are critics Gilbert Seldes and Harriet Van Horne and author Charles Sherman.

A GROUP of English films are scheduled for Monday nights at 9:30 on WMAL-TV beginning this week. The first in the series is "Four Feathers," starring Ralph Richardson, June Duprez and C. Aubrey Smith in the story of an English colony. Among the later films will be "That Hamilton Woman" with Vivien Leigh and Laurence Olivier, "Catherine the Great" with Elizabeth Bergner and "Henry the Eighth" with Charles Laughton.

Lee Tracy to Play 'Public Defender'

"THE AMAZING Mr. Malone" will make its television debut with Lee Tracy in the title role Monday, September 24, at 8 p. m. on WMAL-TV.

Familiar to radio audiences for the past 10 years, "The Amazing Mr. Malone" will present Tracy in the role of a criminal lawyer who also acts as a "public defender," taking on cases he believes in. This character, created by Mystery Writer Craig Rice, also has been seen on motion picture screens.

'Playhouse' Sky Gets First Star

THE PLAN for "Playhouse of Stars" to acquire a group of top ranking actors, each to play several dramatic roles throughout the season, is under way with the signing of Helen Hayes.

Because of outside commitments in January Miss Hayes may have to leave the show following two appearances scheduled during the first 13 weeks of the cycle. But if it is possible she will stick with the show for the full 39 weeks, playing six roles.

Miss Hayes made her TV drama debut in "The Late Christopher Bean" on "Pulitzer Prize Playhouse" last year. That Playhouse, having run out of Pulitzer Prize material available for TV, has become the "Playhouse of Stars" and moved from ABC to CBS. The new series will start Friday, October 5 at 9 p. m. on WTOP-TV.

Helen Hayes, one of America's top acting talents, is the first star to be signed for the new "Playhouse of Stars" which will begin October 5 on WTOP-TV
