Dennis James, TV pioneer, begins another show today at 11:30 a.m. on WMAL-TV with the assistance of Julia Meade. It's a daily.

Pacific War Series Begins

"CRUSADE in the Pacific," a 26-film series about war in the Pacific from the invasion of Manchuria to the present, begins tonight at 9 on WMAL-TV. Prepared by the March of Time from American, Allied and captured enemy films, the series is an "actuality" production. The predecessor of this series, "Crusade in Europe," won the George Foster Peabody, Alfred I. duPont, Academy of TV Arts and Sciences, and the Motion Picture Daily Awards.

BETTY FIELD plays the troubled wife of an uncompromisingly intolerant husband in "Grace," based on Somerset Maugham's "Landed Gentry," which will be aired at 9:30 tonight on WNBW.

Rotating Stars Series Begins

HELEN HAYES will make her first television appearance in modern dress tonight at 9 on WTOP-TV when she stars in the first of the "Schlitz Playhouse of Stars" series which has a "stable" of stars for its productions. Miss Hayes, the first one signed, has been joined since by Walter Hampden, Margaret Sullavan, Rosalind Russell and Ronald Reagan.

The stars under contract will rotate, appearing exclusively with the series during this season in about six roles each.

Helen Hayes plays a spinster with memories of a gay romance in Paris in "Not a Chance," first in a new series of drama shows, at 9 tonight on WTOP-TV.

"THE CASE of Carrie's Coffin" is the first problem in the new "Mystery Theater" series which begins tonight at 8 on WMAL-TV. Tom Conway and Jim Burke appear as detectives.
