Fan Fare

Talent scouts for MGM were favorably impressed by an audition done by Chuck Grant, "Scattergood Baines" actor, for a role in the picturization of the best seller novel, "The Yearling." RKO also has an eye on the youngster, who observed his 11th birthday July 24, for a role in the film version of "Scattergood Baines."

Continuation of commercial prive fight broadcasting via NBC is assured through the fall and winter with the signing of a new contract by a hat sponsor, the 20th Century Sporting club, and the network. Pact is effective with the blow-by-blow airing of the Armstrong-Ambers embroglia at Yankee Stadium Aug. 22.

"Breezing Along," Friday night MBS show which is broadcast in conjunction with "Johnny Presents" over CBS for the same sponsor, will move to Mondays at 6 p. m., effective Aug. 7.

Celebrities from all walks of life will appear in the "by popular demand" minstrel show to be staged by Mort Lewis on "If I Had the Chance" over the NBC-Blue network Tuesday, Aug. 1 at 8 p. m. Those already in the field include Ben Lyon and Bebe Daniels, former silent screen stars who are now the sensation of London radio, currently in New York for a visit; Dr. Frank Black, general music director of NBC, and Ham Fisher, noted cartoonist.
