Votes for Monkeys?

A voting machine is easy to operate. Even a monkey can pull a handle. But we wouldn't think of letting a monkey vote. He's simply too stupid, too ignorant, to help govern the country.

Now suppose any citizen lived like a hermit for a few years, cut off from every source of truthful, accurate news.

Suppose all he knew of what was going on in the world consisted of lies and propaganda fed to him only by some self-seeking candidate for office.

He'd still be more INTELLIGENT than a monkey. But would he be much better than a monkey when it came to voting, to being a useful citizen?—Would he be much better EQUIPPED than a monkey, from the point of view of information and judgment, to help govern the country?

Where do you get the information that enables you to vote wisely, to be a useful citizen?—Where do you get the FACTS that enable you to live your daily life as you want to—the facts from which you make up your mind about what products to buy, where to buy them, how much to pay for them?

Make no mistake about it. If any self-seeking office seeker ever took your NEWSPAPER away from you, or forced your newspaper to print lies and propaganda, you'd be mighty HELPLESS when it came to voting, doing your share of governing the country, being a useful citizen. And if anything happened so your newspapers couldn't run advertisements, you'd be mighty IGNORANT about what products to buy, how much to pay for them and the best place to buy them.

But as long as you HAVE your newspaper, as long as it is free to give ALL the news, BOTH sides of every story, NO ONE can force you to "hell"—no phony "dictator" can make a monkey out of you!
