Sunday Radio Highlights

A new 15-minute Sunday show, "The Punsters," will be heard on WOL this Sunday at 6:45 p. m. Karl Bates, LBS director of news in Washington, will direct a word or phrase to a three-man panel. The panel fires back puns using the word or phrase the punmaster puts to them.

Les Sands, Meredith Howard, and J. Jerome Williams will be the panel punnymen on the first show. Sands, well-known radio and television personality in Washington; Miss Howard, founder of the United Nations Club; and humorist Williams will be racing against time in the unrehearsed show.

The show will be produced by Sol Panitz, veteran radio and television producer in Washington, and aired on an experimental basis. It will be continued if it proves to be popular with listeners.
