BY JOHN S. DAGGETT

Monday chooses for its radio high lights a speech by President Hoover, a gala frolic by the entire KHJ staff at the Hotel Del Coronado and plenty of sheer nonsense in KFRC's Blue Monday Jamboree.

At Indianapolis tonight (KHJ at 6:30) President Hoover will be heard in an address before the Indiana State Editorial Association. Before such a group of newspaper men he should give out facts concerning present national emergencies.

If but half takes place that KHJ promises in its gala frolic in Coronado at 10:05 tonight, you won't be bored. Headed by Raymond Paige, the entire staff of musicians, entertainers and announcers of KHJ will be heard. The program is in honor of the new radio affiliation between the hotel and KGB, the Don Lee station in San Diego.

And then, if you'll back up to 8 p.m., KFRC's Blue Monday Jamboree comes over the Don Lee chain to KHJ. Jane Green, famous musical-comedy star, has been permanently added to the KFRC staff and makes her initial bow tonight. Rock-bound coasts and hidebound fishermen whip action into an intense melodrama by the Deep Dramatic Stock Company. And if you get a few good laughs, why worry!
