President Hoover, Ruth Roland and Count Felix Von Luckner compose the triumvirate of personalities on radio today. And to top it off—or rather to start it off—the Los Angeles Breakfast Club breaks into the morning with two hours of operatic stars.

KFWB at 8 this morning finds the Breakfast Club presenting the two entire casts who are to sing "Cavalleria Rusticana" and "Pagliacci" in the Griffith Park Greek Theater on Friday Night, the 26th inst.

While at 12:30 noon KHJ-KECA—welcomes the program offering the dedication of the reconstructed tomb of Abraham Lincoln from the East. President Hoover and Gov. Emmerson of Illinois will be the speakers on the program. You can depend upon it there will be excellent music to accompany this hour.

KHJ at 6 tonight releases another of the Vitality Personalities series—this time presenting Ruth Roland, with Ted Husing doing the announcing. A medley of tunes from the Third Little Show will be the orchestral feature.

Echoes of the World War creep in over KFI at 6:30 tonight, when Count Felix Von Luckner, Germany's war-time naval hero, faces the microphone to be interviewed by Grantland Rice. As an added attraction to this half-hour—James Stanley, bass, will sing a group of he-man sea chanties.

And so—on to the highlights.
