Wallace Acceptance Speech to 'Win' Over Packers' Game Tonight

Seventeen year old Janice Gilbert is so successful in imitating baby voices that she plays infants, toddlers and teen age youngsters on half a dozen radio programs. Listen for her as little Paul Travers Jr. on the popular serial, "Meet Miss Julia."

Sports and politics will compete for attention on the radio tonight, but politics will win—because there'll be a rebroadcast of Henry A. Wallace's acceptance speech but none of the Packers-All-Stars football game.

Ceremonies in connection with the annual grid battle in Chicago, as well as the actual play, will be aired by WTMJ (at 7:15) and WGN (at 7:30).

Wallace's speech accepting the Democratic vice-presidential nomination will be broadcast at 8:15 p. m. by WENR, WBBM, and others, and at 8:30 by WIBA, WMAQ, and others. Rep. Marvin Jones' (D., Tex.) notification address also will be aired.

A transcription of the Wallace ceremonies will be broadcast by WLW at 11 p. m.

Gorilla Didn't Want to Go to Bed—Keeper Hospitalized

PORTAGE — Putting a gorilla to bed takes a "mother's touch."

Frank Abrahams, 30, assistant keeper of a 194-pound female gorilla, Tarzauka, shown at the Columbia county fair, is recovering from bites and scratches suffered when she objected to being transferred to the sleeping compartment of her cage.

Tarzauka suddenly thrust one arm through the door of the cage and pulled Abrahams against the bars. He was bitten about the knuckles and scratched on the neck. The injuries, not serious, were dressed at St. Savior's hospital. When Tarzauka's regular keeper, Clarence Clayton, appeared, she calmed down and went to bed without further resistance.

4-H Calves Lead Sauk Fair Exhibits

BARABOO—The Sauk county fair opened Wednesday with the most promising weather of the week and the grounds were thronged with youngsters for "Children's day."

Exhibits in all departments are outstanding, with the 4-H clubs leading in calf work. The number of calves entered is 202, largest number yet shown. Prof. George Humphrey of the University of Wisconsin college of agriculture spent a busy day judging these entries.

Exhibits were so numerous in most departments that judges were unable to complete their work Wednesday.

Judging completed early included horses. John Alexander, Baraboo, took first place for best exhibit of registered Percherons, while individual awards went to John Litscher, Prairie du Sac, and L. G. Kuhnau, Baraboo.

Fred Bisch, Baraboo, took the award for best exhibit of not less than five Belgian and Clydesdale horses. Ivan Eschenbach, Baraboo, took first for best span of grade horses, both heavy and light, while seconds went to John Litscher, and John Kindschi, both of Prairie du Sac.

Edward McGilvra, Baraboo, took all awards in the Jersey class, with 11 firsts, including champion bull and cow. For Ayrshires, George Dobratz, Merrimac, won eight firsts, including champion bull.

In the swine department, Kindschi Bros., Prairie du Sac, took eight firsts on their Berkshires, while Roy Schlough, Mazomanie, won nine firsts on his Chester Whites. Champion Poland China boar was shown by H. K. Hill, Prairie du Sac, and champion sow of this breed by Leon Slauson, Spring Green.

Green County Faces 250,000 Corn Crop Loss

MONROE—Ray L. Pavlak, county agricultural agent, said that more than $250,000 damage to southern Green county corn crops may result from the heavy rains and floods of the past few days.

In lowland sections around the Sugar and Pecatonica river bottoms, farm land is still under almost three feet of water, according to Pavlak.

"If the rain continues, damage will exceed the $250,000 mark," Pavlak stated.

Dry, hot weather will be the salvation of corn crops in the flooded area. At present, approximately 500,000 bushels of the county 4,000,000 bushel total have been affected by the heavy waters.

Grain is out of danger, for it was cut and stored before the heavy rains, Pavlak said.

Skies are overcast, and more rain is forecast for the county, an official weather report claims.

Old golf clubs are being collected in England for the metal.
