The Williams brothers, Bob, Don, Dick and Harry, achieve some of their characteristic close harmony as they glide into the chorus of "Time to Shine," heard over WLW Monday through Friday at 7 a. m.

BARCLAY ON BRIDGE

By Shepard Barclay

"The Authority on Authorities"

NOT THE REAL PURPOSE

SAFETY PLAYS can be silly things. The real purpose of them is to protect your contract and help assure that you make it, even at the expense of a trick or two over contract, which might have been scored if you had been willing to risk the entire contract. But when there is an alternative play which does not subject the contract to any risk at all, but only stands to gain for you if it works, you are out of the bounds of logic if you pass it up intentionally.

North: ♠ K J 10 8 2 ♥ J 5 ♦ A 6 2 ♣ Q 7 2

West: ♠ A Q 9 ♥ K 10 7 3 ♦ Q 8 7 4 ♣ 5 4

East: ♠ 7 5 3 ♥ Q 9 8 6 4 2 ♦ K 5 ♣ 8 3

South: ♠ 6 4 ♥ A ♦ J 10 9 3 ♣ A K J 10 9 6

(Dealer: North. North-South vulnerable.)

North	East	South	West
Pass	Pass	1 ♣	1 ♥
1 ♠	2 ♥	3 ♣	Pass
4 ♣	Pass	5 ♣

West led his heart 3 to the Q and A. The declarer took in his top two trumps, then decided upon what he called a "safety play." Seeing that he must lose one trick, in spades, he decided that a safe way to avoid losing more than one other was to find West holding one of the two missing diamond honors. So he led the diamond J. West covering with the Q and the A winning. He led the diamond 2, then to the K. East fired back the heart 6, which South ruffed. He took in the diamond 10 and 9, then led the spade 6. West playing the A and making it easy, as South now had no more losers.

Better play, after the heart A, club A and club K would have called for work on the spades. With the honors of that suit marked with West by his bid, he could have discarded his diamond losers on the ultimately set up spades. His best method would have been to lead toward the suit. If West played low, finesse the 10, then return to his hand and lead toward the suit again. By this means, he would have made an extra trick.

• • •

Your Week-End Lesson

Should a sound match-point duplicate player ever try a play which will produce a trick above his contract if it works, but will cause the defeat of the contract if it fails? If so, what are the circumstances in which a declarer is justified in trying this? Can you set up a hand giving a clear-cut example of it?

Chicago Indicts 10 in Fraudulent Vending Machine Case

CHICAGO — (U.P.) — A federal grand jury indicted 10 Chicagoans Friday on charges of collecting $350,000 in fraudulent rents on candy and peanut vending machines in Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, and Delaware.

The indictment, including 20 counts, charged that victims were promised a 20 per cent profit on machines rented from Burel and co., Chicago, but received "only scanty returns." Indicted were Aloise and Emil J. Burel, founders of the Burel co., and eight men they employed as "salesmen."
