'Junior'

Red Skelton, NBC's bad boy "Junior," "do'ed" it to the jam closet and you can bet his mother will break his "widdle" arm when she catches him.

Charming, Piquant, Lovely

Harefoot's "leading lady," Diane, played by Duane Bogie, sophomore from Whitewater is stunning in "her" evening gown as "she awaits a stage call at the Club Zanzibar. Club Zanzibar is Harefoot's show within a show in its 44th annual musical comedy, "Keep 'Em Laughin'."

The all-male musical comedy will be presented here May 1, 2, 7, and 9. A free matinee will be presented to the soldiers at Camp Grant, Ill., the afternoon of May 8. In the evening the 1942 Harefoot show will play in Rockford, Ill.

Indian Talks Valuable--Cripps

Envoy Blames Failure on Axis Propaganda

LONDON— (U.P.) —Sir Stafford Cripps, opening a debate in the house of commons Tues. on his abortive negotiations with Indian nationalists on home rule and defense, said he was confident the negotiations, even though they failed, would prove of value.

Cripps said that before his visit, anti-British sentiment prevailed among certain sections of Indian opinion.

He implied that Indian leaders were responsible for the breakdown, and that there was an atmosphere of defeatism, instead of determination to defend the country againts the Japanese threat, partly because of "highly skilled though grossly misleading" Axis propaganda.

"I do not think that any one in this country need feel regretful that the government proposals (to India) were put forward or need to blame the government or the British people for the unfortunate fact of the failure to reach agreement," he said.

"I should like to emphasize that in my view nothing but good can result both from the fact that the proposals were made and the almost equally important fact that the war cabinet sent one of its own number to discuss them with leaders of Indian opinion," he explained.

Mexico City cabarets paid fines for 7,861 law violations in one month.

Pastor Chides Colleagues as 'Insipid'

MILWAUKEE—(U.P.) — The Rev. John Lewis, Presbyterian pastor and president of the Milwaukee Council of Churches, described Tuesday as "insipid" a resolution adopted last fall by the Milwaukee Ministerial assn. protesting the killing of hostages in Europe.

Explaining his rebuke of the association in a recent speech before the Milwaukee victory forum, Dr. Lewis said that "the protest they finally made was so mild it didn't mean anything."

At a meeting of the ministerial association early last autumn Dr. Lewis proposed a resolution calling for a protest against Germany's "slaughter" of hostages. It was referred to a committee, which, at a later meeting, brought forth a resolution with changes in wording, most important of which was the omission of the term "Nazi-German."

Association officers said Tuesday that "we will always protest against all forms of cruelty, whether performed by one side or the other," but that at the time Lewis introduced his resolution "it seemed utterly futile to make any such protest to Hitler."

In his speech Tuesday, Lewis chided the association for what he termed its display of timidity. He said:

"The shooting of hostages shocked all semblance of decency. Secular organizations protested but when a resolution of protest was placed before the ministerial association, it was sent to cold storage."

7 in Milwaukee Arrested, Charged with Draft Violations

MILWAUKEE —(U.P.)— Seven of the 15 persons to be arraigned Apr. 30 in federal court were arrested on charges of violating the selective service law, according to U. S. Atty. B. J. Husting.

Three of those held for alleged draft violations were accused of failing to get in touch with their draft boards after moving; three reputedly failed to register, and the seventh was charged with making a false statement in his questionaire, Husting reported.

Out of 32 indictments returned recently by the grand jury, 12 were for violations of draft laws.

dioman Pat Norton, said today when she learned that he had chalked her name on a bomb that sank a Japanese transport.

Miss Blocker didn't care if the other girls in the insurance office where she works saw her crying for joy. It didn't make any difference to her that the letters to be typed were piling up, or that she was so excited she couldn't eat a bite of breakfast. What did matter was that she had heard from Pvt. Norton, who is "something special" even if he is only 20 years old and "too young," she thinks, to be fighting so hard.

The good news that he was safe and that he was a hero relieved the ache that has been in her heart ever since last Dec. 31 when he was in the United States the last time.

"I was going to be with him in St. Louis and he was going to give me my engagement ring," she said. "Then he got called out in a hurry from the west coast and he had to send the ring by mail. But I've got it and you can tell him I'm wearing it—all the time."
