Childhood And Early Manhood Of J. Edgar Hoover To Be Dramatized Over WJZ

WOR starts a new series, "The Fleet's In," with Betty Rhodes as star on Saturday at 8 p. m. (EWT). Guest stars will be used, one a Navy hero, the other a movie personality, each week.

J. Edgar Hoover, as director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, is a figure known the world over, for his department has been termed the finest police organization of all. But of the life of J. Edgar Hoover, of his childhood and early manhood, little is known, even to the American people. Hence, the Little Blue Playhouse presents a dramatization of his life on Saturday, 11:30 a. m. (EWT) over WJZ.

The third trial in "The Day of Reckoning" series Saturday, WEAF, 7 p. m., E.W.T. will be "The People vs. Pierre Laval." The drama is by Elmer Rice, Pulitzer-Prize-winning dramatist.

In large buses, anti-freeze solution is not placed in the radiators, as the amount of critical material which would be required to supply these vehicles with anti-freeze solution would be greater than the amount of gasoline consumed in letting the motor idle to keep the radiator from freezing.
