Love Is Also A Tennis Term.

"THEY SERVED the Muses," a story about a retired lady tennis champion who is considering giving up marriage to return to the courts, will be presented tonight at 10 on WTOP-TV. The original story was by Kressman Taylor. Priscilla Gillette, Frances Fuller and Noel Leslie will be featured.

"THE JOHNS Hopkins Science Review" will present a little item tonight called "Conceived by a Microscope" which will probably prove crime doesn't pay in its own scientific way. The science series is seen Mondays at 8:30 p. m. on WTTG.

ELENA NIKOLAIDI will be guest soloist on "Voice of Firestone" at 8:30 this Monday night on WNBW.

June Lockhart plays the title role in "The Doctor's Wife", a comedy with serious intentions, at 8 on WTOP-TV Monday night.

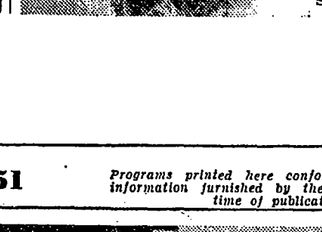
Comedy Gets Pert on TV



Pert Kelton

LATEST IN the growing list of Jackie Gleason portraits is "The Honeymooners," in which Pert Kelton, screen, stage, radio and TV comedienne, appears as his better half, Jackie plays a bus driver. Pert a housewife. Both love a good scrap "because making up is so wonderful." The heckle but humorous lovebirds are readily recognizable as the couple next door—occasionally closer to home than that! Actually Gleason got the immediate inspiration for "The Honeymooners" from a young couple who had an apartment adjoining his for many months. Jackie says they practically wrote the script without knowing it. The Gleason show is seen Friday nights at 10 on WTTG.

HELEN HAYES, star of the premiere broadcast of the "Schlitz Playhouse of Stars," makes her second appearance on the weekly fullrtes, in "The Lucky Finger," by Lennox Robinson, this Friday at 9 p. m. on WTOP-TV.

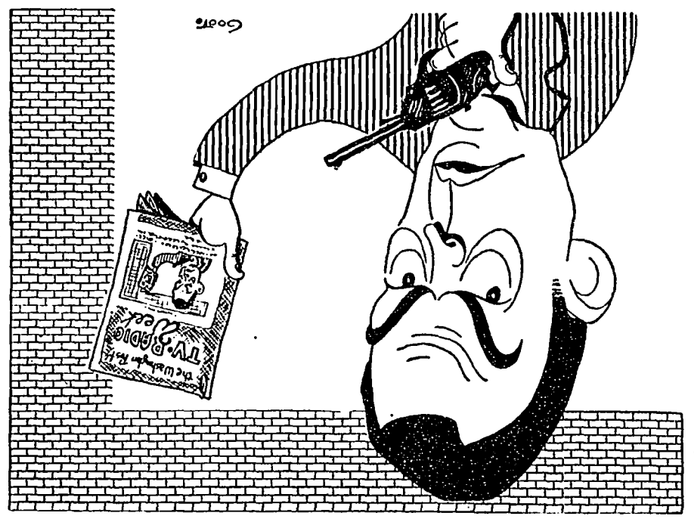
TV·RADIO Week

Sunday, October 28, 1951



Fred Allen seems somewhat disinclined to find himself on the cover but he's news this week as he returns to TV as one of the rotating comedians on "Sound Off Time," which is seen Sunday nights at 7 on WNBW. Bob Hope and Jerry Lester take turns with him.

Sunday Radio Highlights

A FIGHT AGAINST communism in dramatic form begins this Sunday at 9:30 p. m. on WOL and the Liberty network. The series, entitled "Prologue" in reference to the quotation "The past is prologue—study the past" which is inscribed on the Archives Building, is being produced by Georgetown University under the supervision of Fathers Francis J. Heyden and Stephen Winters. The theory behind the program is that we need only turn to such documents as the Declaration of Independence and the Bill of Rights to find the right approach to charting the Nation's destiny.

The first show in the series will be about Admiral Stephen Decatur's campaign against the Barbary pirates in 1804—proof that even as a new, untried Nation we prefered to fight rather than pay tribute.

WASH-FM BRINGS the Oklahoma City Symphony Orchestra back for a third season tonight at 10.
