Sunday Radio Highlights

"THE PEOPLE ACT," a series about democracy in action, begins this Sunday at 10:05 p. m. on WTOP with the story of how 2000 angry women in Gary, Ind., cleaned up the local police department and courts. The story of the fight for the modernization of the public school system in Arlington, Va., will be heard January 13.

The series, using tape recorded voices of persons actually involved in the civic actions, is produced by CBS and the Ford Foundation.

THE FIRST in a series of discussions on "Invitation to Learning" which have been suggested by the listeners begins this Sunday at 11:35 a. m. with a discussion of Samuel Butler's "The Way of All Flesh." This is the first time the 11-year-old program has had the listeners decide which books would be discussed. Listeners voted for controversial books rather than old favorites, the producer discovered.

MARLENE DIETRICH begins a series of romance-intrigue adventures Sunday at 9:15 p. m. on WMAL. "Cafe Istanbul" is the story of a sultry singer who runs a cafe where characters deeply involved in foreign intrigue meet.
