NEWS ARTICLE REVIVES HOPE FOR OHIO SON

CLEVELAND, Sept. —(AP) —A story filed by Robert Vermilion, United Press war correspondent after the invasion of southern France today led a Cleveland father to believe his son is safe despite the fact that the War department has notified him that he is missing in acton over France

William Laigent received a War department telegram saying that his son Sgt Jesse W Laigent was missing in action Aug 13.

On Aug 23 Vermilion's story appeared telling of how in a German hospital in southern France, Adm Karl Everich strode up to the bed of an American sergeant and surrendered his sword as the Allies landed

He surrendered to the sergeant because he was the only American there The story said that the American was a technical sergeant—a radio gunner of a Marauder bomber that had fallen in a raid two days before invasion — and that he was a Clevelander

Jesse is a technical sergeant and a radio gunner on a Marauder The story could not reveal the sergeant's name for censorship reasons until notification of his next of kin

Laigent believes the sergeant is his son

GET IN FIRST BLOW, JURIST ADVISES WIVES

CLEVELAND, Sept 1 — (UP) —The increasing number of wife-beating cases coming up in police court proved too much today for Judge Mary B. Grossman.

"Don't let your husband beat you," she advised women in general and Mrs Irene Gorcy 27, in particular "Beat him up, instead Use weapons if necessary"

Mrs Gorcy charged her husband, Joseph, 29 year-old war worker, with giving her a black eye because his dinner wasn't ready one evening when he returned home from the job

Judge Grossman fined Gorcy court costs, suspended a 60-day workhouse term and placed him on probation for a year, saying that wife beatings probably were the result of "war nerves"

"But this does not excuse it," she hastened to add

SECRECY VEIL ABOUT PARLEYS DRAWS NEW FIRE

WASHINGTON, Sept. 1—(UP) —The closed nature of the Dumbarton Oaks world security conference drew new Republican fire today as Sen Styles Bridges, (R N. H), denounced the policy of "oriental secrecy and said he may discuss it next week with Gov Thomas E Dewey, the GOP presidential nominee

In his second blast of the week against the confidential character of the conversations between American, British and Russian delegates, Bridges belittled the press conference held at the Dumbarton Oaks estate on Tuesday to report in general terms, the progress made toward outlining a new world peace organization

Styling it "a so-called press conference," Bridges said in a statement that reporters came away "shaking their heads despairingly," and that "one reporter voiced the true sentiment when he said they got 'a diplomatic brushoff.'"

Talks Planned On What To Do With Germany

WASHINGTON, Sept 1—(AP) —It now seems certain that before another month passes President Roosevelt and Prime Minister Churchill will meet to formalize plans for the control of Germany now approaching defeat and the immediate post war security of the western world

Also expected to come up for discussion are arrangements for Britain's full participation in the war against Japan once Germany is out of the way This British help was promised by the prime minister when the President and he got together at Quebec, Canada, a year ago this month

Little remained to be announced of the forthcoming session except the time and place President Roosevelt has answered recent press conference inquiries with the comment that he would meet Churchill soon

This will be the eleventh session of the British and American leaders with their political and military advisers They last had three sessions in the middle east meeting at Cairo with Generalissimo Chiang Kai Shek Stalin at Teheran and again at Cairo with President Ismet Inonu of Turkey

The intervening eight months have constituted the longest period since their original 1940 Atlantic charter meeting that they have not conferred.

That period has seen climactic advances on all fronts toward Allied military victory.

Likewise it has brought a number of political plans to fruition, notable among them the four-power conferences now underway here at Dumbarton Oaks on creation of a world security agency.
