'FREE MOVIE DAY' SCHEDULED FOR FRIDAY AT OHIO

First of a series of "Free Movie Days" in connection with the Fourth War Loan Drive will be observed Friday at the Ohio theatre

Anyone buying a War Bond at the theatre that day will be admitted to the show free The picture to be shown is "His Butler's Sister" starring Deanna Durbin, Franchot Tone and Pat O'Brien Friday's showing will open the picture's regular run at the Ohio

"Free Movie Day" dates for two other theatres also were announced Thursday The special day will be observed Feb 1 at the Sigma and at the State on Feb 7

Of the 16 000 theatres thruout the United States participating in the Fourth War Loan Drive between now and Feb 15, practically all have signified their intention of instituting a "Free Movie Day" as part of their drive for the Treasury's goal of 14 billions of dollars, and the motion picture industry's goal of a "Bond For Every Seat"

"Free Movie Day," according to J Wallace "Doc" Elliott, county chairman of war activities for the movie industry and manager of the Ohio theatre, means simply that anybody can go into a motion picture theatre on a day set aside as 'Free Day," without purchasing a regular theatre ticket. The only qualification for a free show is that the movie goer substitute a War Bond for a theatre ticket.

That's all there is to it—buy a War Bond, skip the ticket booth, go in and see a movie for nothing

Not too little-too late

AMERICAN troops are fighting and occupying strategic bases at 56 points strung halfway around the world.

Regardless of distance from home shores, our fighting men must receive a steady stream of supplies and equipment. And convoys are carefully scheduled to reach them on exact timing.

For more than two years, Erie and other American railroads have been meeting the timing of convoy sailings. Troops, equipment, and supplies must arrive exactly when they are needed for loading so there will be no congestion—no delays.

Timing is of the utmost importance on both the battlefront and homefront.

The timing of your War Bond purchases is of great importance, too. Right now, today, your government needs your loan to help keep supplies of vital war materials flowing to our men so they will never have too little—too late.

We Need Bottles and Cases!

The W. P. D. has drastically reduced the manufacture of beer bottles for the brewing industry, and there have been no boxes or cartons available for many months.

Result—we are without cases several days each week, which could be filled and delivered to your supplier. The shortage of beer has been serious for months, and it is now further aggravated by this new condition.

Search your cellars, garages, and all other places where you might have beer bottles and cases stored. Return them to your supplier immediately, otherwise it may be still more difficult for you to get beer in the months to come.

Return Your Cases And Bottles TODAY!
