PDF compressed, OCR, web optimized using a watermarked evaluation copy of CVISION PDFCompressor

Sunday Radio Highlights

MARIAN ANDERSON will sing a memorial program to the late Harold L. Ickes on the steps of the Lincoln Memorial at 4 p.m. Sunday. Her program, including Bach's "Come Sweet Death," the Schubert "Ave Maria," and a group of spirituals, will be carried by WTOP and WGEM. WGMS, which also will carry the program, will proceed at 4:45 p. m. with several interviews with members of the audience. (Repeat of the concert by recording at 9 p. m. on WOL and at 10:30 p. m. on WMAL.

A CATHOLIC UNIVERSITY drama student will appear with Chester Morris at 8:30 p.m. Sunday on WTOP in the "Philip Morris Playhouse on Broadway." The student, Eugene M. Piccinino of Washington, will be heard in "Zack Dawn I Die," story of a crusading newspaperman who is "framed."

WTOP—7:45. "Hong Kong," a novel by Nineteenth Century French writer Francois Rene de Chateaubriand, is discussed.

WKC—12:30 p. m. "Out of the Fire," a drama by Joseph Mindel in observance of ninth anniversary of Warsaw Ghetto, is presented.

WOL—12:30. "Education Meeting the Needs of Youth," sion Columbia Marquis Childs, Rep. Clifford Case (R-N. J) and Dr. James D. Atkinson, George-town University.

WOL—8. Arthur M. Schlesinger, jr., associate professor of history at Harvard, and six students discuss "Is Education Meeting the Needs of Youth?"

WBC—8:30. Madeline Carroll stars in A. A. Milne's tragicomedy, "The Truth About Blayds."

WGEM—9:30. Chamber music program in tribute to music patron Mrs. Gertrude Clarke Whittall Mozart Quintet (K. 515), Beethoven Sonata for Piano, Violin and Horn in E Flat, Op. 40. Trio for Piano, Violin and Horn in E Flat, Op. 40.

WWDC—10. The presidential primary in the District of Columbia is discussed by Stanley A. Karson, president of Young Democrats and Carl L. Shipley, president of Young Republicans.

WMAL—10:15. The Jackson st. area of Seattle, Washington, is the subject of a Laughlin Steel Corp. discussion, "What Does the Steel Crisis Mean to America?"

WTOP—11. Metropolitan opera on New York Philharmonic in Mendelssohn's oratorio, "Elijah."

WTOP—5:30. Hobart Trout presents Europe's reaction to Eisenhower.

WGMS—5:45. "The Sunny Side of the Alom" is discussed by Washington Chemist Horace S. Isbell.

WBC—6:30. Groucho Marx, George Sanders, Fred Allen, Portland Hofta, Ethel Merman, Phil Foster, Earl Wrightson, Julie Harris and William Prince appear with Chester Morris at 8:30 p.m. Sunday on WTOP in the "Philip Morris Playhouse on Broadway." The student, Eugene M. Piccinino of Washington, will be heard in "Zack Dawn I Die." story of a crusading newspaperman who is "framed."

WTOP—11:45. "Education Meeting the Needs of Youth."

WTOP—7:45. "Hong Kong," a novel by Nineteenth Century French writer Francois Rene de Chateaubriand, is discussed.

WKC—12:30 p. m. "Out of the Fire," a drama by Joseph Mindel in observance of ninth anniversary of Warsaw Ghetto, is presented.

WOL—12:30. "Education Meeting the Needs of Youth."

WOL—8. Arthur M. Schlesinger, jr., associate professor of history at Harvard, and six students discuss "Is Education Meeting the Needs of Youth."

WBC—8:30. Madeline Carroll stars in A. A. Milne's tragicomedy, "The Truth About Blayds."

WGEM—9:30. Chamber music program in tribute to music patron Mrs. Gertrude Clarke Whittall Mozart Quintet (K. 515), Beethoven Sonata for Piano, Violin and Horn in E Flat, Op. 40. Trio for Piano, Violin and Horn in E Flat, Op. 40.

WWDC—10. The presidential primary in the District of Columbia is discussed by Stanley A. Karson, president of Young Democrats and Carl L. Shipley, president of Young Republicans.

WMAL—10:15. The Jackson st. area of Seattle, Washington, is the subject of a Laughlin Steel Corp. discussion, "What Does the Steel Crisis Mean to America?"

WTOP—11:45. Harold E. Stassen outlines his political platform.

WTOP—5:30. Hobart Trout presents Europe's reaction to Eisenhower.

WGMS—5:45. "The Sunny Side of the Alom" is discussed by Washington Chemist Horace S. Isbell.

WBC—6:30. Groucho Marx, George Sanders, Fred Allen, Portland Hofta, Ethel Merman, Phil Foster, Earl Wrightson, Julie Harris and William Prince appear with Chester Morris at 8:30 p.m. Sunday on WTOP in the "Philip Morris Playhouse on Broadway." The student, Eugene M. Piccinino of Washington, will be heard in "Zack Dawn I Die,"