BY JOHN S. DAGGETT
 Electric washing machines and radios have whipped the "blue" out of Monday and with the exception of the Blue Monday Jamboree there are plenty of brighter colors in today's programs.

SENATOR ARTHUR CAPPER

Of national authorities, perhaps KFI at 9:15 this morning will appeal with a talk over the N.B.C. by Senator Capper of Kansas. With the Middle West bearing a good share of the brunt of present economic conditions, a cross-section of conditions by Senator Capper should be interesting.

Running through the afternoon—a number of concerts will attract your attention during the early and late evening. In the worlds of KHJ's publicist, "Originating in the lobby of the ancient and honorable Del Coronado Hotel, J. Warde Hutton's easy-going dinner music makes the soup flow smoothly and the vegetable plate look more healthy." All of which means, KHJ brings from KGB, San Diego, at 6 tonight, thirty minutes of dinner music.

Then the cross-word puzzle addicts will dial KHJ at 7:45 tonight. "A high-stepping musical program with Raymond Paige, his orchestra and singers conniving at radio's only new idea in months. A cross-word puzzle worked out in melodies: over 100 prizes," so we read.

Again dialing KHJ, at 8 p.m., Monday's blue devils are supposed to vanish when KFRC sends down its Blue Monday Jamboree. "The Smiths to Win," that is the slogan of thousands of Californians who have participated in the voting to have tonight's Blue Monday Jamboree dedicated to them. The "Wilsons" and the "Browns" have put up a great battle. A riot they promise.
