Short Wave Notes

Short wave listeners who are on the mailing list of the publicity department of the German short wave broadcasting system have received during the past week or two one of the most pretentious mailing pieces the department has put out to date. It is a well designed, 56-page booklet containing detailed programs, pictures and explanations of the special anniversary programs to be broadcast by the German stations during April in commemoration of the completion of five years of short wave broadcasting.

In addition to detailed program schedules for April, the booklet contains an interesting history of German short wave broadcasting activities and pictures of announcers whose voices American listeners hear most every day. In addition, splendid pictures of the German short wave stations' studios as well as scenes from various featured programs are abundantly scattered throughout.

Maple Leafs Still 7-5 Favorites in Stanley Cup Play

TORONTO, Ont.—(U.P.)—The Toronto Maple Leafs still are 7-5 favorites to win the Stanley Cup despite dropping the initial encounter in the best-of-five series to the Chicago Black Hawks Tuesday night.

The Leafs, National Hockey League champions, were 2-1 favorites to take the series before the Hawks captured the opener, 3-1, Tuesday night. Both teams, spurred to a high tension by the bitter feud raging between the rival managers, eagerly awaited the second game of the playoff tonight.

Smarting under their setback by the league's prize underdog team, the Leafs vowed they would dispose of the Hawks in the next three games. The Hawks, incensed because of Leaf Manager Connie Smythe's refusal to permit Dave Kerr of the New York Rangers to substitute for injured Goalie Mike Karakas in the Chicago nets, were just as confident that they could win two out of the four remaining games.

Chicago Manager Bill Stewart said he expected Alfie Moore, regular goalie of the Pittsburgh Hornets in the International American league who usurped the hero's role in the Hawks' victory, to be in the Chicago nets for the remainder of the series. Karakas, who was kept on the sidelines by a broken toe suffered in Sunday night's semi-final victory over the New York Americans, may be fit to resume goal-tending by Sunday night when the two teams meet in their third game in Chicago, but Stewart said it was "very unlikely."

Karakas and Forward Mush March left Toronto Wednesday night for Chicago where they will be treated for injuries and ready themselves for Sunday's game. March suffered a pulled muscle and other minor bruises Tuesday night.

If the third game in Chicago Sunday night does not decide the series, the fourth will be played in Chicago Tuesday and if a fifth is necessary the clubs will come back here for the final on Thursday.

Chicagoans Dent A. B. C. Standings

CHICAGO, Ill.—(U.P.)—Two men who helped Birk Brothers of Chicago set a new American Bowling Congress team record of 3,234 Tuesday night reached out for individual honors Wednesday.

Joe Traubenik moxed into third place of the singles standings with a 723 total. George Notz, who hit 712 Tuesday night, added a 586 doubles effort and 637 singles series to take sixth place in all-events with 1,935.

Harold Grogan, another Chicagoan, took fifth place in all-events with 1,936 pins.

Chicago Cubs Drub White Sox Club, 10-9

EL PASO, Tex.—(U.P.)—The Chicago Cubs parted company temporarily with the White Sox Wednesday night after thumping their city rivals for a 10-9 victory, their eighth in 13 games the teams have played in spring training. Immediately after the game, the Cubs entrained to join the St. Louis Browns in San Antonio while the Sox departed for Sweetwater, Tex., where they will meet the Pittsburgh Pirates.

York Paces Tigers to 10-4 Triumph

CLEARWATER, Fla.—(U.P.)—The Detroit Tigers buried the Brooklyn Dodgers under a 10-hit attack that included three homers and scored a 10-4 victory Wednesday. The loss was the sixth in a row for the Dodgers, who were limited to nine scattered hits by Ed Selway and Jake Wade.

Rudy York, with two homers and a triple, and Charley Gehringer, with a homer and two singles, headed the Detroit attack.

Max Butcher and Luke Hamlin pitched for the Dodgers.

Legion to Sponsor 'Tin Lizzie' Race

Commander R. L. Vivian of the William B. Cairns Post of the American Legion announced today that the Legion will sponsor the "Tin Lizzie" races to be run at the Dane County Fairgrounds Sunday, May 8. Model T Fords are allowed to enter the 75 mile race for a number of cash prizes. All cars entered must be stock model jobs and must pass inspection and be safe mechanically, stated Commander Vivian.

The entry list will be limited but will include cars from all county Legion Posts and groups from adjacent towns. Anyone wishing to enter is requested to get in touch with the Legion entry committee, consisting of E. S. Dewey and Jesse Sword at 521 E. Washington Ave., Telephone F. 6688. Rules governing the races will be issued by the committee or by the Headquarters at the Park Hotel.

Similar races run in Wisconsin cities last year drew record crowds and Madisonians will be treated to a full afternoon of entertainment. Commander Vivian said that the proceeds of the race will go toward the Legion building fund.

Elimination races held after the regular race will test the endurance of both the car and its driver according to plans of the committees.

Tickets and posters announcing the affair are being distributed about the city and county and the committee to handle the race will be announced next week.

Home Talent Now Has 25 Teams

Membership in the Pure Home Talent baseball league for 1938 today was swelled to 25 teams upon the signing up of Sun Prairie, Marshall and Lodi, league members last year, who had failed to renew their franchise holdings at Sunday's organization meeting.

Sun Prairie, Eastern section champion last year, and Marshall informed the league secretary, Selmar C. Skarr, Wednesday, that they would compete again this year. Lodi had renewed its franchise Tuesday.

League officials have decided to delay the drawing up of schedules until sometime next week because they will attend the Sauk County league meeting next Tuesday in an effort to add that circuit to the league as a section.

Word still is awaited from Springfield Corners and Arena, two of last year's members, as to whether they will compete this season. Neither had a representative at Sunday's meeting and neither has contacted league officers for a renewal of its franchise.

Secretary Skarr also stated Wednesday that the league has officially recognized the Spaulding AA (No. 161) ball as official in all league games this season.

Yanks Win 2-0 on Beggs' Pitching

DALLAS, Tex. — (U.P.) — The brilliant pitching of Rookie Joe Beggs gave the New York Yankees a 2-0 victory over the Dallas Steers Wednesday. The win snapped a Yankee four game losing streak.

Beggs, a 21-game winner with Newark last year, pitched seven innings and allowed only four singles. The Yanks committed two errors but turned in three double plays. Hadley finished the game and permitted one hit.

The Yanks collected seven hits off Al Baker who hurled the distance for the Steers.

Poland has less than 20,000 passenger automobiles and 4,950 taxicabs.

Sweden spent slightly over $1,000,000 in unemployment relief last year.

Photoelectric cells from America may be introduced into Warsaw, Poland.
