REPRINT DEPT. From Sunday's Chicago Sun:

"We are advised, in an excited press release, that 'nearly 1,100 editor-writers' in the radio field have voted something identified as 'Polonaise' —presumably in A Major— 'the musical composition of the year.' This hot tip comes from the enterprising trade journal, Radio Daily, which adds: 'Thus Chopin reaches out into posterity to join the All-American winners.'

"Nice going, Chopin old boy. Immortality at last."

BARBARA HALE

Decorated with coins from servicemen all over the world, the bathing suit of Barbara Hale is still not too heavy. Anyway, she doesn't wear the coins while she's swimming or acting. Only when she favors the Hollywood camera as shown above.
