WAPAK AIRPORT DEDICATION SET

Extensive Show Planned Sunday at New Field

(Lima News Bureau)

WAPAKONETA, Sept. 4 — An array of Army planes is expected to be an outstanding feature of the all-day dedication of Port Koneta, two and one-half miles north of Wapakoneta, Sunday. Mayor Walter Harrod and other city officials will be special guests at the dedication.

Supporting the dedication of the airport that was built last spring by a group of enthusiastic aviators, is the Chamber of Commerce. The airport committee composed of Lawrence Abbott, C. K. Rockwell and A. W. Klipfel, voiced the C. of C.'s approval today and added that $150 will be given in support of the festivities.

More than 150 visiting planes will be here for ceremonies that will open with a breakfast at the Port at 8 a. m. A light plane contest with private fliers will be held and also a parachute jump.

An all-day program is planned by officials at Port Koneta who announce that spectators will have an opportunity to see B-29's, B-25's, two P-80's and a helicopter. In addition to the Army show there will be stunt flying. The program will close at 6 p. m.

Officials of the airport include William Reed, Ross Brown, William Petty and William Maxwell.

STRANGE CUSTOM

In China, horses, carriages, servants, furniture, etc., all made of paper, are burned at the graves of wealthy Chinese as a hint to the gods of the style of living which the deceased desires to have continued.

MOOSE ANTLERS

Bull Moose shed their antlers just after the autumn rutting season, with the new set becoming full-grown about four months later.

REDS, SWEDEN SHUN PROPOSAL

U. S. Told in Effect To Mind Own Business

MOSCOW, Sept. 4 — (AP) — Russia has rejected American expression of concern relative to bi-lateral Soviet-Swedish trade negotiations in a note in which the official Russian news agency said the United States was told, in effect, to mind its own business.

Tass, the Russian news agency, announced the rejection last night and quoted the note of rejection as saying that the "Soviet government—and it may be assumed the government of Sweden—are not in need of consultation with the United States government on the question of the advantage or disadvantage they will reap from trade agreements."

(Sweden, in effect, rejected the U. S. note—in which the hope was expressed that Russia would not undertake any obligations in conflict with principles expressed in a mutual aid agreement concluded between the United States and Russia in 1942—when her foreign office announced last Saturday that a Swedish delegation would leave for Moscow tomorrow to resume negotiations on a proposed five-year agreement with Russia.

Tass, stating that its information was based on data received from the Soviet foreign ministry, stated in the Moscow broadcast:

"The government of the USSR, the note observes, is the more astonished at the contents of the American government's note, considering that the government of the United States itself is in the habit of concluding long-term bilateral credit trade agreements with other countries on supplying them directly or thru the export-import bank with long-term credits for the purchase of American goods.

The waterpower of the world is now 46,000,000 horsepower, an increase of 100 per cent in the past 10 years.
