MARIE SEUEL-HOLST

Two Madison schools of music Saturday announced plans for the new season, which will open this month.

The Wisconsin School of Music will begin its 25th year under the direction of Elizabeth Buehler when lessons start Sept. 12. With one exception, the faculty will be complete; Siegfried Vollstedt will have the first three months on leave of absence while attending to business affairs in Germany.

Madison Concert Orchestra Plays at Frank Hoyt Park

ROSEMARIE ROLPH

The scene of the Madison Concert orchestra's Sunday programs will be shifted today to Frank Hoyt park at Sunset point, where the federal music project organization will play at 3 p. m. under the direction of John Bach.

Soloists will be Grace Weidner, lyric soprano, and Rosemarie Rolph, clarinetist.

Miss Weidner has sung on WTMJ and WISN, Milwaukee, and has played leading roles with the International Opera co. She has also appeared at the Waldorf-Astoria and Lombardi hotels in New York city, was first prize winner in a Biltmore hotel concert with Horace Heidt's orchestra, and has sung in Kansas City, Mo., and Chicago.

Miss Rolph, a graduate of Monticello high school and a pupil of Benny Ehr, was a member of the National High school band at St. Louis, Mo., and won first division awards in Wisconsin school music contests for two years. She has appeared on WHA as soloist with the orchestra.

To simplify listeners' trips to the new scene of the concerts, the Madison Railways co. will operate Highland park buses to Franklin ave., one block from the park, between 2:30 and 5 p. m.

The concert program:

Orchestra: "Semper Fidelis" march, Sousa; "Light Cavalry" overture, Suppe.

Miss Weidner: "L'Amour, Toujours l'Amour," Friml; "Giannina Mia," Friml; "Donkey's Serenade," Friml.

Orchestra: "Reconciliation" polka, Drigo; "Mardi Gras," Grofe.

Miss Rolph: "Wedding of the Winds," Hall; "Showers of Gold," Buillon.

Orchestra: "Rose Marie" selections, Friml; "Farandole," Bizet.

Mari Barova to Sing Role of 'Azucena'

Mari Barova, contralto of the Chicago City Opera co., will appear again in a role which she sang here, when she plays Azucena in Verdi's "Il Trovatore" Sept. 8 and 9 at the Atlantic City steel pier.

Movie Quiz Films to Play at Strand

All films listed in the movie industry's $250,000 movie quiz contest which appeared here before the competition began Sept. 1 will play return dates at the Strand theater, Manager John Scharnberg announced Saturday.

Frances Moves to Safeguard Priceless Art

PARIS —(U.P.)— France already has taken precautionary measures to save from possible aerial attack her priceless art treasures, museum collections, national monuments and fine buildings.

But aerial bombs can be dropped on every inch of French territory the moment war begins and France is fearful that her attempts to save such treasures as the cathedral at Rheims may be fruitless.

The program for constructing air-bomb shelters in Paris included those for hospitals, barracks and ministerial departments, and museums. All were completed a year ago. Museum keepers and a specially trained squad of municipal workers can be mobilized for the placing of these treasures in vaults the instant hostilities begin. The same plans are being pushed for all of the provincial museums of importance.

Under the department of Beaux-arts—a branch of the ministry of education—a complete classification of all art treasures, private as well as public owned—is now complete. It is understood that the department already has prepared to round-up such treasures in case of hostilities.
