STATE OF WISCONSIN: IN SUPREME COURT

In the Matter of the Promulgation of Rules Relating to Pleading, Practice, and Procedure in the Courts of the State of Wisconsin.

For the purpose of simplifying the procedure and promoting the speedy determination of litigation in the courts of the state of Wisconsin,

IT IS ORDERED, That in conformity with the provisions of section 251.18, Wisconsin Statutes, the following rules relating to pleading, practice and procedure in judicial proceedings in the courts of the State of Wisconsin, be and the same are hereby promulgated, to take effect as of the 1st day of April, 1948.

Section (Rule) 255.05 is amended to read as follows:

Rule (Section) 255.05 INSUFFICIENT NUMBER OF JURORS. Whenever at any term of either such court there shall be a partial or entire absence of jurors of the regular panel, from any cause whatever, the court may direct that the clerk, in his presence, immediately draw from the names so furnished and provided such number of names of persons as may be required to serve as jurors during the term; and whenever there shall be a deficiency of jurors of the regular panel at any time during the term the court may order a sufficient number to be so drawn to fill the regular panel, or a less or larger number as the public interest and the condition and character of the business shall require. Whenever it becomes apparent to the court or the trial judge that the regular panel will not be sufficient to provide a jury for a particular cause to be tried at the current or next term of court, the court or judge may direct the clerk to draw and summon a sufficient additional number of jurors, specifying the number. Whenever the list of names furnished any such court shall have been depleted the commissioners shall supply other names so that there will not be less than 150 nor more than 500 names in the box at the time any drawing of jurors takes place. Such names shall be written on slips of paper which shall be put into the box as hereinbefore provided.

Section (Rule) 263.43 is amended to read as follows:

Rule (Section) 263.43 IRRELEVANT, SCANDALOUS AND INDEFINITE PLEADINGS. If any pleading contains irrelevant, redundant or scandalous matter it may be struck out, with costs, on motion, and the court may order the attorney who signed the same to pay costs. When a pleading is so indefinite or uncertain that the precise nature of the charge or defense is not apparent the court may on motion order the pleading to be made definite and certain. The time to serve a required responsive pleading is extended 10 days after the service of notice of entry of an order made upon the motion, unless the order fixes a different time.

Section (Rule) 304.41 is amended by adding thereto at the end the following sentence: "The garnishee summons shall be returnable before the justice
