

CURTIS SPEAKS BY RADIO TODAY

Vice-President to Address Moose Convention

New York to Welcome Two Who Flew to Turkey

Blue Monday Jamboreadors Plan Gay Offering

The Times Forum, KHJ, at 1:30 p.m. Hollywood Song Writers' Revue—Marcy Klauber and Harry Stoddard.

World-wide News, 7 a.m. 12:30, 4:20 and 10 p.m. (William (Bill) Stribling, heavyweight contender, to speak on the 12:30 news period.)

BY JOHN S. DAGGETT

Into radio's mixing bowl for Monday they've tossed a welcome to the aviators who flew from New York to Constantinople, a speech by Vice-President Curtis, a handful of concerts and the blue Monday jamboree that should steal your dial for a smile—perhaps two.

Polando and Boardman made what is termed the most remarkable nonstop flight in history, and KHJ offers three-quarters of an hour of their reception at the New York Ad Club luncheon in New York City. Today the club will pay tribute to the boys and both of them will undoubtedly acknowledge the honors with a few words.

The Moose have a convention and, as their guest, Vice-President Curtis will address them. The subject of his talk has not been released, but in these stirring times you can dial KHJ at 5:45 tonight and Curtis will unquestionably deal with a subject of interest to every citizen, Moose or otherwise.

Which brings us to the Blue Monday Jamboreadors—KHJ at 8 tonight. It is an old and ancient custom to dedicate this two-hour headache to anything from George Washington to baby's first tooth. Tonight they've abandoned the custom, letting it run wild. So dial it at your own risk.
