'Star Theater' Shifts Time Tonight; New Leader is Barrymore

One of America's most successful businesswomen is Mrs. Hortense M. Odlum. Her clear thinking and executive ability won for her the presidency of a famous New York department store. The story of her success will be dramatized on the Wednesday night CBS program, "It Can Be Done," on December 7.

The weekly "Star theater" will undergo two radical changes tonight, shifting its time and taking on a new master of ceremonies. John Barrymore will take charge of the broadcast, to be heard on WBBM from 8 to 9. Guestar will be Alice Brady, who will play the lead in "A Happy Journey," by Thornton Wilder. Regulars on the show are Ned Sparks, Charlie Ruggles, Una Merkel, Jane Froman, Kenny Baker, the Harry Simeone choir, and David Brockman's orchestra.

Other headliners tonight:

Soldiers Grove High Hopes to Retain Title

SOLDIERS GROVE—With Bob Benson, Harry Banta, and Jim Peterson, three of the mainstays of last year's strong team back, Soldiers Grove high school is set to retain its Kickapoo Valley league basketball championship. Soldiers Grove won the title last year with 12 wins and only two defeats.

Banta, Peterson, and Benson perhaps form the best trio in the Kickapoo league. They will be aided by Donny McDowell, a sophomore who saw considerable action last season.

Other candidates reporting to Coach Leonard Smith are E. Iverson, B. Banta, L. Banta, H. Christopherson, P. Bailey, R. Wagner, M. Coher, H. Dull, D. Hornbeck, F. Banta, and V. Dodge.

Soldiers Grove open its title defense at Readstown Dec. 2. The league schedule:

Dec. 2—at Readstown; Dec. 9—Viola here; Dec. 16—at Seneca; Dec. 20—West Lima here; Jan. 13—Gays Mills here; Jan. 17—at Wauzeka; Jan. 20—at LaFarge; Jan. 27—Readstown here; Jan. 31—at Viola; Feb. 3—Seneca here; Feb. 10—at West Lima; Feb. 14—at Gays Mills; Feb. 17—Wauzeka here; Feb. 21—LaFarge here.

Oshkosh Drubs Firestones, 37-19

DE PERE, Wis.—The Oshkosh All-stars took an early lead and swept to victory over the Akron, O., Firestones, 37-19, at St. Norbert college Tuesday night.

Shoving in five replacements the Akrons made a comeback in the second chapter but a bevy of free throws and shots off pivot were overwhelming. The half ended, 22-13.

Leroy Edwards led the scoring with four field goals and eight free losses. He was followed by Hamann and Preboski with eight points each. The summary:

Elroy Prep Cagers Open Season Tonight

ELROY—David J. Bloczynski, Elroy high school coach, will see his basketball team in action for the first time tonight when it plays at Wilton in a non-league game.

Bloczynski, who replaced Lon Sohrweide as mentor here, has only two lettermen on his squad and Elroy's hopes of annexing the Juneau County league championship are dim. The new coach is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin and has been coaching at Minocqua in the Northern Land O' Lakes league. Minocqua won the state Class C title in 1937 and copped its conference title last year.

Elroy won only four of 12 games last season and placed seventh in the Juneau County league. It opens its league schedule this year at Camp Douglas, Dec. 9.

Max Hayden and Donald Ormson are the two veterans back. 'Biscuit to Take Last Flyer at Santa Anita

By BILL CORUM

NEW YORK—(INS) — Charles S. Howard, owner of what may prove to be the greatest race horse of our times, was at the Giants and Green Bay football game at the Polo Grounds Sunday, wondering, out loud, whether he would race in Florida or California during the winter racing season.

We know the answer, even though Mr. Howard doesn't. He will race at Santa Anita park in California, and barring accident, his, yours, and my champion — Seabiscuit—will make one final pass at the $100,000 Santa Anita handicap.

And if the stubborn old son of Hard Tack can't win it this trip after two spectacular failures, then even Charley Howard and his legion of friends will have to give it up as a bad job.

For Seabiscuit has been closer than a "biscuit in gravy" in the last two runnings of the "hunnert' gran' handicap," and if he can't make it on the third, and charmed try . . . . well, then, even Mr. Howard, Bing Crosby, Pat O'Brien and the rest of the 'Biscuit's best boy friends will have to give up.

Can't Do It—Even in Hollywood

After all, not even in Hollywood can they expect a race horse to go on forever. Why should a horse be able to do it, when the best of the actors and actresses can't?

Moreover, if Mr. Howard means for the 'Biscuit to wind up as the greatest gleaner the American turf has known—which he does mean to do—he'd better not fool around with any purses that will just get his champion over the top, as witness the following letter from a gentleman who is a realist in the matter of records:

"Dear Bill—It says in the public prints that C. S. Howard plans to campaign Seabiscuit until such time as he has cracked the money—won record of Sun Beau and that means, everything taken into consideration, that the 'Biscuit will be out there for quite a spell.

"Sun Beau's record is $376,744—cash. The 'Biscuit is second with $340,480. A gap of $36,264. But there is a bit of forgetfulness—the Beau ran in the years before all the gold was stored in Fort Knox, Ky., and when it was the custom to toss around cups, plates, and goblets of gold to the owners of horses winning classic events.

Also $64,000 in Trinkets

"The records show that Sun Beau won $64,000 worth of gold and silver cups, in addition to all that cash. That $64,000 represents 1931 appraisal. Since then gold has been upped about 75 per cent in value—and there's a ready market for it at the new price.

"I don't know if the 'Biscuit ever will eclipse the Beau's mark in actual cash, even though he is only $36,264 away. There's been a jinx chasing all horses which have made the try: Phar Lap, Equipoise and others.

"Nor do I know exactly what Willis Sharpe Kilmer might do under the circumstances. But I do know that he is very keen that Sun Beau remain in memory as the greatest money-won horse of all time.

"So, if the 'Biscuit does scoot slightly beyond that $376,744, which has been hanging on horsedom's front porch since the Beau went into retirement after 1931—well, what would prevent Willis Sharpe Kilmer from swooshing into one of those places where they buy old gold, and selling $60,000 worth of gold ornaments at the current price of $35 an ounce—net $105,000—and adding that to the cash income of Sun Beau, and haunting $376,744, plus $105,000 in the general neighborhood of Seabiscuit, C. S. Howard, et al, and demanding:

Many Have Fallen Short

"Okay. There you are. $481,744—that's what Sun Beau won in cash and convertibles. Aim your pop guns at that."

It's interesting to note that in 1920, Man O'War was retired, with $249,465, which made him the top money earner of American horses.

Since then 13 American horses have topped that record. All through the 1920's the runners were displacing each other at the top of the heap. Exterminator eclipsed Man O'War's mark. Zev knocked him off the throne seat, then Gallant Fox took the controls. After which came Sun Beau in 1931 with that $376,744—unbeaten through seven years.

Top Flight took a crack at the record—and fell short. Mate stopped—with about $75,000 to go. Equipoise failed when only $38,000 away. Phar Lap died — in his prime — with a mere $43,000 to pick up. War Admiral is almost $100,000 short now. The 'Biscuit growd's the Beau.

Who's wagering what on the 'Biscuit to check $376,744? Sincerely Frank G. Menke.

Editor's Note—Dear Mr. Menke: I am, signed, Bill.

Tomah Has Three Lettermen Back

TOMAH—Hit hard by graduation, Tomah high school's basketball prospects are far from bright. Coach W. W. (Tony) Weishapple has only three lettermen and two other players who saw considerable action last season as the nucleus of this season's team.

The Indians won 11 games and lost three last year, then won the Sparta Class B district and regional meets to only lose to Shawano's championship club in the semi-finals of the state tournament.

Five first string men, including Bob Leuschner, South Central conference scoring champion, were lost through graduation. The Indians will as a whole be inexperienced and will lack size.

Morris Spangenberg, Harrison Henry, and William Gramenz are the returning letetrmen. Gerald Teske and Charles Heyer saw considerable service last season.

Tomah opens its 15 game schedule here next Tuesday night when it meets West Salem in a non-conference game. It opens its South Central conference competition Dec. 9 at Reedsburg.

Mt. Horeb Reserve Strength Proved

MT. HOREB — Coach Walter Roeck tested his Mt. Horeb high school basketball team's reserve strength here Tuesday night, and it stood up under fire as the Horebmen annexed a 19-16 victory over Black Earth. It was the second triumph for the home team over the visitors this season.

Roeck substituted freely and eight of the 10 men that saw action for Mt. Horeb broke into the scoring columns. Black Earth was by no means outclassed, however, as it battled the Mt. Horeb vets and newcomers on even terms all the way.

Mt. Horeb had a 5-4 lead at the quarter which it increased to 12-8 by halftime. Black Earth had an 8-7 scoring edge in the second half. Carl Kahl and Lorenz accounted for 13 of Black Earth's points, the former netting seven.

Mt. Horeb's "B" team scored an 8-5 verdict over the Black Earth second team in a preliminary game. Box score:
