'KIDNAPING' PROVES TO BE ELOPEMENT

NORWICH, Sept 24 — (AP) It was an elopment, not a kidnaping, that took 17-year-old red-headed Mary Grillo away from home last Friday.

The story came out in City court today when Judge Charles W Cassidy dismissed a kidnaping charge against Private Nicholas Devanno 24, spending a furlough here from his post at Fort Devens, Mass.

Judge Cassidy called the dismissal a wedding present. Prosecutor John E. Shields told the court the couple was married Saturday in Bel Air, Md., and that the girl's parents were willing to withdraw charges against Devanno.

Police broadcast an alarm for the girl, sister of a Norwich policeman, and Devanno after she disappeared Friday from her job in a shoe factory.

NEW Hearing Aid Stirs Wave of Enthusiasm

Compact Electronic Unit Without Dangling Cord Hailed In Six Clinics

NEW YORK: After a series of "sneak" previews of six hearing clinics throughout the Metropolitan area, tabulated reports of hearing experts working in the Acousticon Public Education Department reveal a spontaneous acceptance of a new and revolutionary scientific development for the hard of hearing.

No longer is it necessary to wear a tell-tale cord dangling from the ear. The new Acousticon has no box, nothing of any kind to hide in the clothes. On most women, it cannot be seen. The wearer is free both from cords and clothing noise. Using the telephone is a natural function.

A woman can wear even a strapless gown or swim suit without revealing the fact that she is hard of hearing. Because of the way it is worn, it assures clear, effortless hearing—in fact, better hearing than with any conventional hearing aid known.

This amazing new development may be seen and tried without cost or obligation at Acousticon of Fairfield County, 117 Wall Street, Bridgeport, or, a FREE illustrated booklet will be sent by writing to the above address.—Adv.
