Eastertide Rules Air; Walter Huston Stars in 'Les Miserables'

Robert "Believe It Or Not" Ripley who is again being heard via WBBM Friday nights at 9:30, will be honored with a doctor of letters degree on May 29. The degree will be bestowed by Dr. T. W. Bibb, president of Missouri Valley college during the ceremonies comemorating the university's 50th anniversary.

Eastertide programs will dominate the airwaves tonight. In music, drama, and discussion the religious theme will prevail. A special Good Friday concert by the 58-year-old Lindsborg Messiah chorus will be heard for the first time. Excerpts from Handel's "Messiah" will be sung during the concert over WENR at 9 p. m.
