Monday Night Uptown Parking Regulation Seen

Regulation of parking in the uptown area when the stores are open Monday nights may be provided by the city council. Mayor Kraege said today that the plan commission discussed the plan informally Monday night and will give it further consideration at the next session. He declared it may be necessary to operate the parking meters Monday nights to provide parking room for shoppers.

The commission discussed the matter in connection with use of the old Brayton school site for parking purposes.

No action was taken on the Brayton property which the Madison Labor Temple assn. wants to acquire for a new Labor temple.

Slaying Suspect Hangs Self in Cell
