Diamond and Gridiron Offer Rivalry These Days

Football Holds Card Today With Midwest Games

Olympic Stadium Game Here Should Be Good

BY JOHN S. DAGGETT

What a dead heat King Football and King Baseball are running on radio this week. Today it's football inning again, reaching first into Midwest in the morning, returning you to the Coliseum in the afternoon.

KECA at 11:45 this morning sweeps into the Middle West to let Graham MacNamee give you a play-by-play account of the Nebraska-Northwestern game. Northwestern is ranked at the top of the heap of middle western football squadrons this season and they'll need to battle hard to keep on top when they tangle with the Cornhuskers from Nebraska. Besides the straight broadcasting you will unquestionably listen to nationally known sports writers and experts who invade the booths to give their angles of the game.

When the Midwest tilt is settled few dials will fail to start tuning in the Olympic Stadium. U.S.C. is going to try to obtain revenge for its drubbing last Saturday by taking Oregon State to the cleaners, and you'll have plenty of stations to choose from. Here's the schedule

2 p.m. KNX, KFI, KMTR.
 2:15 p.m. KFWB.
 2:30 p.m. KHJ, KFAC.

Braven Dyer, Times sports announcer, will work the game for the Don Lee station KHJ. Don Wilson for KFI; Stuart Buchanan and Curtis Benton for KNX, and the other stations all possess boys who know the game and should picture it well.

Microphones and radio stations are funny things, however, so be cynical and tune in at 2 o'clock no matter what station you choose. The game might start before schedule.

Incidentally, the season is in swing now—drop a card to your radio station. Tell them what you liked about their football broadcast and also what you didn't like. They will appreciate it.
