NEW YORK, May 20—(AP)—Buying in steels, motors and rubbers kept the stock market on a rising plane today with favorites posting gains running to a point or so.

Transfers for the two hours were only around 200,000 shares.

Recently inconsequential week-end dealings, coupled with balmy weather, tended to keep many commission house customers away from the financial district.

A smattering of short covering in the steels was observed as the suggestion was heard that these issues, despite the cloudy earnings outlook due to price cutting, may have been oversold.

Reports of expanding automobile production and sales aided the motors.

Prominent shares on the advance included U. S. steel, Bethlehem, Chrysler, General Motors, U. S. Rubber common and preferred, Goodyear, Air Reduction, American Telephone, Kennecott, Phelps Dodge, Standard Oil of N. J., Texas Corp., Santa Fe, Du Pont and J. I. Case.

Bonds and commodities were narrow either way. Securities at Amsterdam, the only important foreign market open today, pointed higher.

A brisk upturn in retail trade last week, as estimated by the federal reserve board, was viewed by market analysts as a promising omen.

For the country as a whole the reserve authorities placed department store sales at 22 per cent above the aggregate in the same 1938 week.

Noted were the figures of the Association of American railroads disclosing class 1 carriers in the first quarter had a net deficite of $43,591,000 after fixed charges, compared with a net deficit of $105,737,000 in the corresponding months last year.

Living Rosary To Be Formed Sunday Night

By ROSE MARIE VINCKE

A "living rosary" will be formed on the Redemptionist monastery grounds by the students of St. Gerard school Sunday at 7:30 p. m. Taking part will be 150 girls dressed in blue uniforms and carrying white, yellow and red roses, representing the joyous, glorious and sorrowful mysteries of the rosary. The Junior and Senior boys will form the cross. Forty-five boys, dressed in cassock and surplice, will represent "Our Fathers" and connecting links of the chaplet. The younger boys will form a guard of honor.

Commencement exercises of St. Gerard High school will be Tuesday evening, June 6, at 7:45 p. m. in St. Gerard church. The Very Rev. Joseph A. Breslin, C. SS. R., rector of St. Gerard, will deliver the baccalaureate address. The 15 seniors who will receive diplomas are: Rita Jane Brennan, Ernest Caskey, Matthew DeVita, Virginia Easley, Roger Fisher, Mary Ann Gallagher, Henry Graham, Edward Lovett, John McCormick, William Nichaus, William McDonald, Robert McPheron, Mercedes Stapleton, Paul Tschuor and Rose Marie Vincke

Sunday morning at the 8:15 mass the first grade students will receive their first Holy Communion. Rev. Breslin will celebrate the mass. They will renew their baptismal vows after mass. Those in the class are Daniel Clifford, Patricia Cunningham, Dale Drillishak, Robert Eilerman, Gerry Finn, Denise Flavin, Pauline Gallagher, Benny Goedde, Gerry Gremling, Jean Guagenti, Joseph Guagenti, Samuel Guagenti, James Kayser, Ronald Kirwan, Ruth Lovett, William Moore, Julia Mangin, Marjorie Phillips, John Noccera, Armella Recker, Paul Roby, Marcia Stapleton, Mary L. PLOT TO KILL BENES REPORTED

PARIS, May 20—(AP)—Diplomatic sources here said today that Stefan Osusky, former Czecho-Slovak minister to France, had forwarded to ex-President Eduard Benes information of a Nazi-fomented plot to assassinate Benes during his current residence in the United States.

Benes, who resigned as Czecho-Slovakia's president after the September partitioning of that now vanished republic at Munich, is lecturing in the United States.

Osusky was said to have turned over all his information to French and American police authorities, who were making investigations.

His information was described as coming from secret agents in Prague and was said to include charges that the plot was fomented by the Nazi secret police in the Czech capital.

Preparation for the annual Junior-Senior banquet and prom are now in full swing at St. John school. The affair, one of the most important social events of the year, is to be held Tuesday, May 23. Clarence Cunningham, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Cunningham, of 719 Milburn-av, has been elected chairman with Robert Murphy and Elizabeth Wellman as his assistants.

Oboler Radio Play Indicts Current Affairs In World

"Crazytown" Inhabitants Show Toll Of Hate, Greed, Mistrust, Tizzie Lish To Conclude Series

"Crazytown," a stinging indictment of the present anarchic state of world affairs, will be presented by Arch Oboler over WEAF Saturday at 9 p. m. The contemporary fantasy is to star Edmund O'Brien, who scored a success this season as Prince Hal in Maurice Evans' Broadway production of "Henry IV." Charlotte Manson, young and talented NBC actress, will have the leading feminine role.

The story tells of two young aviators who make a forced landing in unknown territory while returning from a successful bombing expedition against civilians of a defenseless enemy city. They soon find they have cracked up in Crazytown, a place where individual moral values have become as topsy-turvy as are international moral values in the outside world. Hate, envy and suspicion are cardinal virtues; pity, love and honor are considered unforgivable sins, while murder is the only logical way of settling a quarrel.

Tizzie Lish will conclude a series of guest appearances on the National Barn Dance program Saturday from 8 to 9 p. m., over WJZ. Tizzie, impersonated by Bill Comstock, will offer another batch of uncookable recipes. Musical highlights will be presented by Henry Burr, the Hoosier Hot Shots, the Vass Family, the Octet, Bob Ballentine, Ann Pat and Judy, and the Hayloft orchestra. Joe Kelly will preside as master of ceremonies.

Timmy Riggs' heard-but-not-seen little girl friend, Betty Lou, who does a lot of singing on her own account at the Saturday night parties, will have young singing Wynn Murray as her guest on the WEAF program Saturday at 7 p. m.

It was Wynn who introduced "Johnny One Note" to Broadway as singing star of "Babes in Arms." Other hit numbers of that musical success sung by Wynn were "Way Down East on West End Avenue" and "Imagine." Betty Lou and Wynn Murray both will sing with Freddy Rich's orchestra. GeeGee James as Aunt Jemima will take her usual prominent part in the conversation.

Ruth Mix, beautiful daughter of Tom Mix, who is following in her famed father's footsteps, will be interviewed by Parks Johnson and Wally Butterworth on the broadcast of the NBC Vox Pop program Saturday. The program will originate in the RCA exhibit at the New York World's Fair and will be heard from 8 to 8:30 p. m., over WEAF.

Miss Mix is 25 and like her father has appeared in pictures. She has been in rodeo work all her life, and on the Vox Pop program will tell listeners about her South American horse "Freckles" and will discuss her own performance of riding, roping and shooting.

When the Group Theatre Players complete their final dramatization on the Kate Smith Hour June 1 they will have a total of five appearances on the series, a record unequalled in the songbird's program history.

When Jane Froman assumes the leading feminine singing role on the musical revue which will occupy the Screen Guild Show Sunday spot starting June 11, she may double on Broadway in George White's forthcoming "Scandals." The producer has already made her an offer.

A facsimile collection of the crown jewels of England will be on display during the broadcast of Dave Elman's "Hobby Lobby" over WJZ May 24 when Max Berman, the owner, describes his prize to listeners. The collection is insured for $150,000 and will have a heavy guard at the studios.

Trouble is brewing for Bess Johnson, as matron of "Hilltop House" over CBS. Starting May 22, she steps right into a charge that she has been misappropriating funds.

Bob "Believe It or Not" Ripley, the man of a million odd facts, takes time off from his own radio program heard Friday nights over CBS to appear with Eddie Cantor on the same network Monday, May 22. He wants to find out what kind of oddities the comedian's stooges are.

Two old favorites are revived in new dress when "Dancing in the Dark" and "Song of the Bayou" are featured on the "Raymond Paige, 99 Men and a Girl" program over CBS Wednesday, May 24 at 9 p. m. Also to be heard are "Hungarian Dance No. 5" by Brahms and "El Relicario." The "Hall of Fame" tune for the week will be the popular "Waters of Minnetonka."

"The Courtship," based on a story by Dumas, will be adapted for the microphone as another in the series of "The World's Greatest Stories" on "Johnny Presents" over CBS Saturday at 8 p. m. The narrative, enacted by a picked cast of players, was adapted by Max Marcin and will be under the direction of Jack Johnstone. Master of ceremonies Johnny the Call Boy will introduce the musical portion of the program with Johnny Green's orchestra, Beverly and the Swing Fourteen.
