Reforms at 92

JAMES FERGUSON

Recently convicted on a house-breaking charge, James Ferguson, 92, faced a life sentence because he was out on parole when he committed the offense. Authorities took pity on him, however, and released him when he promised to "settle down." The old man, who has spent more than 45 years in prison for various offenses since 1900, is shown leaving jail.

Tomah Will Discuss Suggested '48 Budget

TOMAH—A suggested budget of $232,690.16 for 1948 will be open for public discussion before the finance committee of the city council on Nov. 7.

The budget represents an increase of approximately $32,600 over the budget for the current year.

General operation is expected to cost approximately $1,500 less, largely due to a reduction in the cost of rentals of the armory which is occupied by city offices. The Wisconsin national guard has taken over full operation of the building.

Protection of persons and property is expected to increase by about $1,700.

Health and sanitation will go up by $1,600.

Cost of city schools is expected to increase from $79,000 to $95,000.
