GLENN HOOD.

President Hoover opens up the radio morning—delivering an address on the last day of the celebration of the victory at Yorktown — then you'll travel through the day —perhaps, stopping at 1:30 to hear the return of Glenn Hood, "Songbird of the Yosemite"—and turning to the evening hours to top it all off with the Blue Monday Jamboree.

KHJ, at 8 this morning releases President Hoover's address, delivered at Yorktown, Pa., at the celebration of the Yorktown Sesquicentennial—it is expected that other notable speakers will be heard during this half-hour.

GLENN HOOD RETURNS

Also over KHJ, at 1:30 this afternoon—The Times Forum points to the return of Glenn Hood, Songbird of the Yosemite. Thousands of listeners in Southern California have visited the Yosemite and witnessed the chief of its many beauties—the Firefall. They have all heard Glenn singing about the camp fire at the foot of Glacier Point—and if you haven't—listen in.

We'll have to pour most of the evening's specials into the high lights—but we couldn't pass up the Blue Monday Jamboree—KHJ at 8. It will be heralded by calling the show "by Special Permission of the Copyright Owners' Night"—Meredith Wilson has brought a large variety of new music from the latest Broadway shows. The Deep Dramatic Stock Company shatters the air with "As a Little Child Shall Lead Them."

And so—let's on to the high lights.

DON'T MISS SPECIAL

Oh, boy—I nearly forgot something—don't miss the Balto Special tonight at 5:45—believe it or not, the Two Black Crows, Moran and Mack, will be there.

If you have children—park them right in front of the loud speaker—its about pooches, purps and mutts.
