"Liebestraum" Will Be Sung By Lucille Manners Friday

Schipa's Transcription To Be Used; WEAF To Carry Gotham's Welcome To King And Queen

Tito Schipa's vocal transcription of "Liebestraum" will be sung by Lucille Manners, soprano, as a highlight of her program Friday from 7 to 8 p. m. over WEAF. Miss Manners also will sing Harrison's "In the Glooming" and Stolz's "Goodbye Little Captain of My Heart." Ross Graham, baritone, will be heard in Koeneman's "When the King Went Forth to War," and with Miss Manners, in Tate's "Somewhere a Voice is Calling."

Dr. Frank Black will conduct the orchestra in the Waltz Intermezzo from Delibes' "Naila," Dance of the Clowns from Rimsky-Korsakoff's "The Snow Maiden," Entrance and Procession from Goldmark's "The Queen of Sheba," and Merrymakers Dance from German's "Nell Gwynn" suite. Sieczynski's "Vienna Dreams" and a medley of waltz melodies from Victor Herbert operettas, by the ensemble, will round out the broadcast.

Arrival of King George VI and Queen Elizabeth at Pier One in the North river Saturday, where they will be welcomed by Gov. Lehman, Mayor LaGuardia and other dignitaries, will be described over WEAF from 10 to 10:30 a. m. Following their arrival, the King and Queen will motor to the New York World's Fair where their reception by Grover Whelan will be broadcast over WEAF from 11 to 11:30 p. m.

A glittering array of British stage and screen stars, engaged in theatrical ventures in New York and Hollywood, will pay homage to their Sovereigns King George and Queen Elizabeth in a full hour radio production over National Broadcasting Co. networks Sunday, as the Royal Couple relax from the rigors to their North American tour.

The surprise radio tribute, not listed in the Royal program, was conceived by Gertrude Lawrence. It will be presented from 2 to 3 p. m. over the coast-to-coast NBC-red network, as their majesties rest at Hyde Park, N. Y., as the guests of President and Mrs. Roosevelt.

With Miss Lawrence as mistress of ceremonies, presiding from the NBC Radio City studios in New York, the broadcast will present a host of British-born theatrical stars and the NBC symphony orchestra in 60 minutes of music, drama and comedy.

Among those who will take part in the tribute are Leslie Howard, Freddie Bartholomew, Herbert Marshall, Laurence Olivier, Dennis King, Judith Anderson, C. Aubrey Smith, Sir Cedric Hardwicke, Roland Young, Anna Neagle, Cecilia Loftus, Basil Rathbone, Brian Aherne, Edna Best, David Niven, Norma Shearer and Madeleine Carroll. Music will be supplied by the full NBC symphony orchestra under the direction of Sir Adrian Boult and Ray Noble, English band leader, and his popular orchestra.

Kay Kyser and his troupe trek to San Francisco early in the week of June 19 for personal appearances at the Golden Gate theatre. "College of Musical Knowledge" will be broadcast from the stage of the Bay City showhouse, Wednesday, June 21.

Western officials of NBC have made a deal with owners of Hollywood Park for exclusive broadcasts of Saturday handicaps. Buddy Twiss is to describe the color, and Oscar Otis will do the calling. Much of the half-hour set aside for the broadcasts will be devoted to music by Maurice from the Biltmore hotel, and cutins will be made just a few minutes before the start of each race.

Jimmy Fidler, radio movie gossiper and columnist, has cancelled plans for a Honolulu vacation this summer. Instead, he'll drop his weekly NBC airlings to broadcast once-a-week (Tuesdays) over CBS during July, August and September.

Edgar Bergen, Charlie McCarthy's "papa" and Mary Healey are a new twosome.

John Conte, co-starred with Martha Mears on the "It Happened in Hollywood" program thrice weekly over CBS, has been awarded a new contract to announce the "Big Town" series.

Ben Freedman has been added to the writing staff of the Bob Benchley show.

Doris Nolan, screen player, is to share the spotlight with Charles Boyer on the Playhouse presentations June 11 and 18.

Bing Crosby is taking his vacation from the airlanes after his broadcast of June 15 but he won't leave town until his Del Mar race track has opened the latter part of July. He had hoped to take his first trip to Europe but he probably will go hunting in the Pacific Northwest.

Tony Martin will extend his engagement at Chicago's Bon Air club thru next week; then return to the Film City to appaer on the "Good News" program.

Wilbur Hatch, music director of "Gateway to Hollywood," leaves California for the first time since 1923, to batoh the final broadcast of the current series, July 2, in Des Moines, Iowa. The final airing, one hour in length, will be offered in conjunction with the premier of the film, "Career," starring the winners of the first "Gateway" series.

Edward G. Robinson's "Big Town" series will take a ten-weeks law-off from the airlanes after the broadcast of July 4, while its twin, "Tuesday Night Party," will remain on CBS for two more weeks before it takes its summer vacation.
