TONIGHT

6:00—KHJ—Sen. Robert A. Taft will be the "Gentleman Under Fire" during the airing of "Meet the Press."

7:00—KNX—"Sing It Again" raises the ante tonight to $18,500 to identify the "Phantom Voice." The latest clue offered was "Now and then you have seen our phantom singer on the screen."

7:00—KFI—Hilarity hits a new high note when Dennis Day and Mr. Anderson organize a quartet and enter the "Waterville Singing Contest."

8:00—KECA—There's trouble brewing in the air for the white men, when a photographer taking pictures of the Dakota Indians leaves some of his equipment behind. . . . The Indians, curious, tinker with the primitive camera, which explodes. The "Lone Ranger" is in a jam.

8:30—KNX—"The Case of the Two-Time Bank Robbers" is told tonight on the "Gangbusters" drama, with Oregon as the state involved.

8:30—KECA—"Hawthorne's Adventures" tonight bring as guest Actor John Lund, together with a repeat of the tune, "Doo De Doo on an Old Kazoo." Hawthorne will also introduce a "Mysterious Melody" with a genuine cheese sandwich, complete with pickle, as a prize for its correct identity.
