MUTT, THIN DIME CAUSE FUSS ON N. Y. THRUWAY

ALBANY, N. Y., Jan. 12.—(AP) A stray dog and a thin dime have caused an almighty fuss across New York state.

Seems a toll collector at a state thruway interchange at Canandaigua noticed a mutt moping around yesterday. Deputy Alan F. Johnston responded to the call and picked up the dog. Four miles down the highway Johnston refused to pay a ten cents toll. What about line of duty?

Toll collectors summoned a state trooper. Johnston dug deep.

Thruway headquarters now says it was all a mistake. Thruway police, not the sheriff's office, should have been summoned for the dog.

Johnston will get back his dime. And the honor may go to the toll collector who called the sheriff's office.
