Archie Re-Opens "Duffy's Tavern," Greets Veronica

"Leave it clean up this joint," sez Archie in anticipation of Veronica Lake's visit to the opening night of the Tavern when "Duffy's" returns to WIZ for its new radio series Tuesday at 7:30 p. m. EST.

Ed Gardner, the "Archie" of the broken Brooklynese finds Boss Duffy a little upset over hiring a new singer and figures if Johnnie Johnston makes Veronica feel a little dizzy thinks it contributing to the informal tale of insanity which is Duffy's will be. Mrs. Duffy is played for the first time by Florence Halop in newcomer and joined Ed Harry von Zell Charlie Cantor as "Eddie" and the dusky man of all work, "Eddie," played by Eddie Green.

Clown Joe E. Lewis newly returned to America after a whirlwind tour along the North African front with his jokes sent in the scene which switchmaster of ceremonies John Brown will read to the switchmasters on "Awake at the Switch" over WIZ at 6 p. m. Tuesday. Switchmasters are Dora Maughan, Patsy Flick, Sid Field and Danny Shapiro the last-named a gagwriter for Lewis.

"The Dark Eyes of London," Edgar Wallace's tale of a fantastic plot to terrorize that great

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 5

Eastern War Time P.M.—Subtract One Hour for CWT, 2 Hrs. for MWT

(Clip and [illegible] to compare [illegible] to listening [illegible])

5:1 [illegible] Captain Midnight [illegible]