Rep. Charles Hawks, Jr., Airs Views Tonight on '40 Presidential Race

Donna Damerel, who plays the younger half of "Myrt and Marge," heard daily over CBS, is probably radio's best swimmer—and one of the reasons may be that Peter Fick, holder of the 100-meter speed swimming title, gives her pointers.

Ending their 10-day vacation in San Francisco, George Burns and Gracie Allen are resting up at Del Monte before returning home to start work on scripts for their new sponsor.

Note to Radio Row: If what Orson Welles says is true, you're going to lose a coupla' shining lights. Orson tells Hollywood reporters that the players in his forthcoming production of Conrad's "Heart of Darkness" will be cast entirely from the personnel of the Mercury theater.
