Drama Debuts, Sports Top Airlanes Tonight; Guestars Plentiful

Basil Rathbone plays "Sherlock Holmes" on the air starting tonight. Nigel Bruce assists the "screen villain" as the beloved "Dr. Watson." The series is heard over NBC-WLS Monday nights at 6:15, with the exception of WLW and WGN, which broadcast the program on Sundays.

Tonight's radio headliners include the debut of three new dramatic programs and two sporting events. The three dramatic offerings are "I Love a Mystery," "One of the Finest," and "Sherlock Holmes." The Chicago Bears-Pittsburgh Pirates night grid tilt and the Fred Apostoli-Cerefino Garcia fisticuff top the sports air calendar. Details on these and other highlight programs for tonight follow, classified:

Dramatic

6:15 p. m.—I Love a Mystery (WMAQ): "The Cruise of the Blue Phantom," a yacht on a scientific expedition loses several passengers.

6:30 p. m.—One of the Finest (WLS): life, adventures, and romance of a police officer.

7 p. m. — Sherlock Holmes (WLS): Basil Rathbone as Sherlock studies the case of "The Sussex Vampire."

8 p. m. — Radio Theater (WBBM): "You Can't Take It With You" with Edward Arnold, Fay Wray, and Walter Connolly.

◇ ◇ ◇

Sports

8:30 p. m. — Football (WIND): The Bears vs. Pirates from Pittsburgh.

9 p. m.—Boxing (WENR): Fred Apostoli defends his middleweight crown against Cerefino Garcia in New York.

Musical

7:30 p. m. — Margaret Speaks (WMAQ): featuring Friml's "Only a Rose."

9 p. m. — Contented Hour (WIBA, WMAQ): music from the pampas of South America.

9:30 p. m.—Pageant of Melody (WGN): Felix Mendelssohn's "On Wings of a Song."

11 p. m. — Music as Desired (WENR): Paul Whiteman features Ferde Grofe's "Mississippi Suite."

◇ ◇ ◇

Variety

7 p. m. — Tune-Up Time (WBBM): all-request program . . . Tommy Riggs' Party (WMAQ): Teddy Hart as guest stooge.

Yankees Will Trim Reds After Battle, Says Kirksey

(EDITOR'S NOTE: Following is the third and final article in a series comparing the Reds and Yankees.)

By GEORGE KIRKSEY

NEW YORK —(U.P.)— No team ever has won four straight world's baseball championships, but the New York Yankees are no respecters of records.

So come the end of the world series and the Yanks will rule the baseball roost for the fourth straight year. They'll beat the Cincinnati Reds, National League champions, in six games, but before they're through they'll know they've been in a man's sized struggle. It won't be one of those Cub things of last fall.

Bucky Walters with his dipsy-so sinker ball, and Paul Derringer, with his sweeping curve, will give the Yanks a run for their money but in the end Yankee power and class will prevail. I give the Reds just about the same chance the gamblers do, one in three, because asking Walters and Derringer, with the kind of hitters they have behind them, to take care of the Yanks is trying to cover too much territory.

The Reds have a good, game ball club and they won't quit. But they just haven't the guns and ammunition to match a well-balanced, experienced club like the Yanks.

Walters and Derringer are going to give the Reds some first class pitching in this series, and that extra day for travel between the two cities makes it possible for McKechnie to get four games out of his two aces in five world series days. Gene Thompson, the 22-year-old rookie, will have to break the gap in the third game and it's not in the cards for a kid to beat the Yanks.

My personal nomination for the greatest Cincinnati pitching job goes to Walters. His sinker ball, which does tricks something like Mel Harder's, is going to give the Yanks a good deal of bother unless the American League umpires do not unbend and refrain from calling those low pitches around the knee zone strikes.

It's and unwritten rule that National League umpires call strikes about six inches lower than the American arbitrators. Carl Hubbell had trouble getting a break on his low pitches and never was able to beat the Yanks with an American League umpire behind the plate.

It's always tough for a pitcher to beat the Yanks more than once in a money series and I doubt if either Walters or Derringer can pull the wool over the eyes of the Yankee hitters more than once.

St. Mary's Wins Opener, 19-0

KEZAR STADIUM, SAN FRANCISCO —(U.P.)— St. Mary's college opened its football season today with a 19-0 victory over Conzaga university before 15,000 fans.

Scoring once in the third and twice in the final period the Gaels' attack was led by Herb Smith, fullback, and Ed Hefferman, halfback. From their own 45, the Gaels passed and ran the ball to Gonzaga's six-yard stripe late in the third pediod. On fourth down Jackie Sims carried four Gonzaga linesmen with him across the goal line for a touchdown. The conversion failed.

Early in the fourth St. Mary's took the ball on their own 20 and drove to Gonzaga's one-foot marker where Heffernan plunged over to score. The conversion again failed. With two minutes to play, Halfback Kenneth Sanders cut through Gonzaga's line and Katzmeyer kicked the extra point.

Jacobs Denies Galento Blind

ORANGE, N. J. —(U.P.)— Manager Joe Jacobs denied Sunday published reports that Heavyweight Challenger Tony Galento had become so blind in his right eye that he might not be able to fight Champion Joe Louis in June.

Jacobs said, "These reports of blindness started because Tony had a blood clot in his right eye where Lou Nova thumbed him during their fight at Philadelphia.

From Over the Rockies Come Grid Surprises

By HARRY FERGUSON
(United Press Sports Editor)

NEW YORK— That loud noise that roared across the Rockies over the week-end was two top-flight football teams falling off the ladder that leads to the national championship.

Southern California and Texas Christian, giants of the 1938 season, have stumbled at the start of the race. UCLA knocks Texas Christian out of the running and Southern California's record already is tarnished by a 7 to 7 tie with Oregon.

Southern California still can redeem its season provided it can get through a schedule that includes such tough ones as California, Oregon State, and Notre Dame. As for Texas Christian, victors in the Sugar Bowl last year—well, they have their memories.

The Pacific coast almost has a monopoly on the week end's surprises. The University of Pittsburgh, a powerhouse along the ground in Jock Sutherland's day, turned into a great passing outfit and won a surprising 27 to 6 victory over a Washington team that figured to do better.

◇ ◇ ◇

Many of the nation's top teams have yet to see action, but by this time next week the picture should be fairly clear. Among those who will get the acid test this week are:

Northwestern, reputedly three deep in strong material, which goes up against a classy Oklahoma team.

California, which tried a double header Saturday and was taken by the College of the Pacific after winning from the California Aggies. California meets the Gaels of St. Mary's, a tough gang any Saturday.

Cornell, one of the best in the east, which meets a strengthened Syracuse team.

Duke, which entertains a Colgate eleven that doesn't seem to be up to standard, but still can cause trouble.

Fordham, which will have to be on its toes to keep from being engulfed by the Crimson Tide of Alabama.

Holy Cross (keep an eye on this team) against Louisiana State.

Michigan, which has a neighborhood brawl with Michigan State.

Minnesota, which takes on Nebraska.

Ohio State, which entertains a fast, clever Missouri team.

Carnegie Tech, which will have to step out against Temple.

Confident Reds 'Visit' New York

NEW YORK —(U.P.)— The Cincinnati Reds arrive today promising to give the New York Yankees the fight of their lives for the world baseball championship.

"I'm not one to make a pre-series prediction," said Manager Bill McKechnie, "but I've never gone into anything in my life but that I expected to win."

The Reds were in good shape physically and spiritually.

McKechnie said his opening pitcher would either be Bucky Walters, his 27-game winner, or Paul Derringer, who won 25, and that he would make a decision after today's workout.

Weather permitting, the Cincinnati club will practice this afternoon and Tuesday, but McKechnie said they would be easy workouts because he wanted his men to rest.

Howard Jones

For 27 years the name of Howard H. Jones has been a familiar one in intercollegiate football coaching ranks.

Jones, head coach at University of Southern California since 1925, is recognized as one of the real "star" football coaches, if one can work up such a classification.

Born in 1885 at Excello, O., Jones received his early schooling at Phillips-Exeter academy, from which he was graduated in 1904. He then went to Yale university from which he was graduated in 1908. At Yale he played left end on the varsity football team and was a pitcher on the baseball team.

The Trojan mentor uses his own system of play. He usually uses several setups, most common one being the single-wing right with both ends split about two yards from the tackles.

He believes in specialization, has a running guard who pulls out of the line for interference and both halfbacks are interference specialists. The quarterback is the work horse, plays back of the line, calls signals and is the triple threater.

Jones began his coaching career at Syracuse in 1908 and then moved to Yale where in 1909 his Bulldogs won 10 games without defeat to rule as national champions. Then he went to Ohio State, then to Iowa where he served from 1916 to 1923. Duke was next for one year and then to Southern California, where he has been ever since.

In 14 seasons at Southern California Jones' teams have won 110 games and lost 32. He has won three national titles and produced 20 All-American players.

School Girl's Slayer to Seek New Trial

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla.—(U.P.)—Counsel for Thomas McBride Cochran, condemned slayer of a high school girl who was lured from home by his promises of stage fame, announced Saturday they will seek a new trial Monday.

Cochran's court-appointed attorney, J. W. Salisbury, said he would file appeal with the state supreme court if the new trial motion were denied by Circuit Judge C. E. Chillingsworth.

Cochran was convicted of first degree murder Wednesday after Salisbury tried to show the slaying of Ruth Frances Dunn, 17, was not premeditated and thus not punishable by death.

The jury verdict of guilty with no recommendation of mercy made the extreme penalty mandatory. Judge Chillingsworth has not yet fixed a date for passing sentence.

Truck-Auto Crash Kills Lindsey Man

MERRILL, Wis. —(U.P.)— Cyril Tom Fagen, 30, town of Lindsey farmer, was killed and Albert Steffen suffered minor injuries in a collision Friday night between their automobile and a truck trailer loaded with lumber. Their machine struck the rear of the trailer on Highway 51 about 11 miles north of Merrill.

St. Louis' 'Blackout' Saves City $16,000

ST. LOUIS—(U.P.)—A "blackout" of street lights early every day saved the city $16,000 between April 21 and the first week of September, says Edward E. Wall, director of public utilities. With the opening of the fiscal year in April, city authorities decided to turn the lights off each morning from 20 to 30 minutes earlier than had been the custom.

Veterans Hospital Nurse Transferred

Alethea Adams, member of the nursing staff of the Veterans hospital, Mendota, left Sunday for Bay Pines, Florida, where she has been transferred. Miss Adams was entertained by friends in Bluebill park before leaving.
