Miss Manners, Ross Graham To Sing Favorite Melodies

"Bo" McMillan To Be Guest Of Grantland Rice; George Jessel Will Have Dick Powell With Him Friday

Lucille Manners will forsake her soprano repertoire to sing the contralto aria, "My Heart at Thy Sweet Voice," from Saint-Saens' "Samson and Delilah" during the concert, Friday, at 8:00 p. m., over WEAF. Miss Manners will be heard in De Leva's "La Serenata," "Tomorrow Night" by Crosz, and, with Ross Graham, baritone, "Down By the Old Mill Stream" by Taylor. Three selections by the ensemble include Arlen's "Down With Love" from "Hurray For What," the Richard Rodgers hit, "Falling in Love With Love" and Victor Herbert's "Romany Life."

A. N. "Bo" McMillan, head football coach of Indiana university, will appear as Grantland Rice's guest. They will discuss the probable result of the Fordham-Indiana clash the following day among other things pertinent to the gridiron.

Louise Massey will sing "Lonely Rose at My Cabin Door" as her solo during the Plantation Party, Friday, at 9:00 p. m., over WJZ, and also will be heard with the Westerners in "Camptown Races."

Other features will be Michael Stewart's rendition of "Ol' Rockin' Chair" and Curt Massey's fiddle interpretation of "Sweet Sue." The ensemble in a medley of "Pretty Baby," "Angry," "My Buddy," and "On Moonlight Bay," and Tom, Dick and Harry in "The Pig Got Up and Slowly Walked Away" will conclude the program.

Kay Kyser, who just returned to New York from Hollywood following completion of his picture, "That's Right, You're Wrong," will take time off from his own "College of Musical Knowledge" rehearsals to become the "young man with a band" on the program of that title over WABC Friday at 10:30 p. m.

Dick Powell, singing star of the screen, will drop in for an informal chat with George Jessel during the comedian's Variety Program, Friday, at 9:30 p. m., over WEAF. Other prominent guests will be featured with Peter Van Steeden's orchestra and the Merry Macs, swing singing quartet.

The familiar greeting "What's New" will be tenor Frank Munn's feature solo during Waltz Time, Friday, at 9:00 p. m., over WEAF. Munn also will be heard with the chorus in "Who Told You I Cared." Abe Lyman will direct his orchestra in the opening selection, "Indian Summer," by Victor Herbert, the Santiago Waltz, "Would You" and the melodic "Love's Lament," by Gaston. Choral selections include "In Our Wonderful Garden of Love" and "If You Love Me, Say So."

Senator Burton K. Wheeler, D., Montana, addressing a mass meeting of Keep America Out of War Congress at Carnegie Hall, New York, will be heard over WJZ Friday, from 10:15 to 10:30 p. m. Rabbi Sidney E. Goldstein, chairman of the congress, will introduce Senator Wheeler.

President Franklin D. Roosevelt's Armistice Day address, beginning at 11 a. m., on Saturday, November 11, historic hour when the World War ended, will be broadcast over WLW.

The Chief Executive will deliver his speech during the Founders Day celebration of the 100th anniversary of Virginia Military Institute at Lexington, Va.

The American Legion services at the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier will be broadcast at 11:01 a. m. Saturday, commencing immediately after the one minute of silent tribute to the war dead.

Speakers include Secretary of the Navy Charles A. Edison, Raymond J. Kelly, national commander, and Mrs. William H. Corwith, auxiliary president.

Saturday afternoon football fare will commence at 1:45 p. m. with the Dartmouth-Princeton game being broadcast over WEAF. Jim Britt will announce this game between the undefeated "Big Green" and the Tigers.

Texas A. and M., undefeated and untied, will meet Southern Methodist, defeated once by Notre Dame, with Bill Stern at the mike commencing at 3:15 p. m. over WJZ.

Dick Bray, sports announcer, will handle the Purdue-Northwestern game at Evanston, with the assistance of Jimmy Leonard, over WLW at 2:45 p. m.

Tom Manning is scheduled to handle the Carnegie vs. Pitt football game over WTAM at 1:45 p. m.
