The following programs are compiled from reports provided by the broadcasters. No responsibility assumed for last-minute changes which sometimes are made.

DIAL LITES—TODAY

1:30 KNX "CBS News Room, Sunday Desk" returns with Chet Huntley analyzing top news events of the week. He is joined by correspondents from the Korean theater, Tom Harmon with sports news and George Fisher with the latest from Hollywood.

3:00 KFI Tallulah Bankhead invades the film capital for the scene of this week's "Big Show." Here she runs into a solid wall of comedians who will attempt to depose this grand lady. Leading off is Groucho Marx followed by Dean Martin, Jerry Lewis and comedy queen, Joan Davis and Gordon McRae.

4:00 KHJ "Harmony House," a full hour musical and dramatic variety program bows in on Mutual today. The latest waxings of Tony Martin, Dinah Shore and Mario Lanza will be heard on the initial broadcast while the dramatic portion is supplied by Marvin Miller as he narrates "Horton Hatches the Egg."

5:30 KFI Ginger Rogers plays the part of a girl who is unjustly convicted of a theft. The revenge she plots is ingenious but "Within the Law." In this "Theater Guild of the Air" production Miss Rogers is co-starred with Lee Tracy.

8:00 KNX "Meet Corliss Archer," who this week prevails upon the gentlemen in her life, Dexter and Dad, to join a dancing class. The gents take a dim view of it and go bowling instead . . . all is well until the night of the Country Club dance. . . . Well!

8:30 KECA Melodies for easy listening are heard on Sammy Kaye's "Sunday Serenade." Today they play a medley of reminiscent tunes including "Sweet and Lovely," "When Day Is Done" and "Once in a While."

TELETIPS

4:00 KLAC "Today's World" is a group of educational shows which is comprised of the "American Institute of Family Relations" with Dr. Paul Popenoe, "Your Child and You," discussed by Dr. Lester Beck of the University of Southern California and the "University Religious Conference" which presents a guest of a different faith each week. Fine Sunday programming for the whole family.

5:00 KECA Randy Brown, the national Hi-Li champion, brings his sensational ball and paddle antics to the "Super Circus" center ring today.

7:30 KTTV Jack Benny and Don Wilson make their second appearance on television. They were good the first time, better this, thanks to the support of old telehands Frank Sinatra and Frank Fontaine, who has been a smash hit on Benny's radio program.

9:00 KNBH The true exploit of 76 British and American airmen who tunneled 300 feet underground in the "Great Escape" from Stalag Luft III has been magnificently and realistically staged to catch the terrifying suspense that went into this great feat.
