U.S. General Denies Quote Red Papers Used

OSLO, Norway—(AP)—Lieut. Gen. Robert K. Taylor, chief of the northern air command of Atlantic Pact forces, denied Sunday Communist reports quoting him as saying the United States plans to turn the island of Spitzbergen into "an aircraft carrier in northern waters."

The Soviet press gave sensational treatment to this report Saturday under an Oslo date line. The papers quoted Gen. Taylor as saying construction of air bases on Spitzbergen would begin soon.

"The quotation which is alleged to have been made by me is too utterly ridiculous to warant my comments," he told a reporter.

Spitzbergen is about 1,000 miles northwest of the great Soviet Arctic port of Murmansk.

Israel to End British Lease

Plans Nationalization of Potash Production

TEL AVIV, Israel — (AP) — The Labor party newspaper Davar reported Sunday Israel has decided to end the British-owned potash concession in the Dead sea and revive dormant production as a partly nationalized project.

The British could still participate as investors.

Davar said the government brushed off Communist and other leftist demands for immediate full nationalization of the firm of Palestine Potash, Ltd., and will offer British shareholders a chance to be partners with Israel.

The government thus apparently sought to avoid, in this relatively small project, the sort of dispute that arose over Iran's nationalization law. That has put the mammoth Anglo-Iranian Oil Co. virtually out of business in Iran.

Potash has many uses in industry and as soil fertilizer. In one form, it is produced from wood ashes, but here it is yielded by the low-lying inland salt sea.

The British concession dates back to the days when Britain ruled Palestine under a League of Nations mandate—before Israel became a nation in 1948.

Davar, which is close to government officials, reported the projected change was decided on last week at a cabinet meeting led by Premier David Ben Gurion and Foreign Minister Moshe Sharett.

The cabinet was reported to have authorized a $2,500,000 investment with money to be obtained on a loan from the U. S. import-export bank.

Ben Gurion's followers hoped to come to terms with the shareholders in order to speed the resumption of potash export, Davar said, and go ahead with other plans to exploit the chemical treasures from the sea that lies 1,292 feet below the Mediterranean level.

The Dead sea forms part of the border between Israel and the Kingdom of Jordan; the countries are still technically at war but are under an armistice that ended the 1948 Arab-Israeli fighting.

RELIEVES SIMPLE HEADACHE

JACOBY ON BRIDGE

By Oswald Jacoby

In rubber bridge or in a total-point bridge contest a part-score contract is of only limited importance.

You can't afford to bid too vigorously when the strength is evenly divided because it doesn't pay to expose yourself to a possibly severe penalty when all you can gain is a part score.

The safest way to compete in these situations is to open the bidding with even the barest requirements for an opening bid.

We can see the advantage of this procedure by examining a hand played in the recent contest for the team championship of the United States.

At one table, as shown in the diagram, South opened the bidding with his "minnie." The opponents just never entered the auction, and it is hard to blame them for staying out.

They were vulnerable, and the penalty might be severe if they stepped out of line.

North made three hearts easily enough, for a score of 140 points.

Opening lead—♠ 3

He had to lose two diamonds and one spade, and good luck in the trump suit restricted his losses there to one trick.

In the other room, South decided that his hand was not worth an opening bid.

Certainly his hand is no rock-crusher, but the point is that if he fails to open the bidding he may never be able to get back into the auction.

This was indeed the case, for the bidding proceeded

This time it was West who made nine tricks with ease, for a score of 140 points.

He had to lose a spade, a heart and two clubs, and the overtrick depended only on guessing the location of the queen of diamonds.

The difference between opening the bidding and passing turned out to be 280 points. Quite a few points for a part-score hand.

City Bricklayers Draw Top Scale of Union Wages

Of union hourly wage scales paid workers in seven selected building trades, bricklayers in Madison draw the top scale, according to a report issued today by the U. S. department of labor.

The study, compiled by the department's bureau of labor statistics, covered the scales paid the seven selected trades in 26 cities across the country.

The department listed the basic wage scales for bricklayers at $3 an hour; carpenters, $2.20; electricians, $2.43; painters, $2.02; plasterers, $2.61; plumbers, $2.47, and building laborers, $1.65.

The report does not cover overtime rates, premium rates, apprentice pay rates, the department said.
