A mixed crew mans radio's ship as it bobs along the air waves today, with an exaltation of The Man With the Hoe, two trips to Santa Claus Land, the United States Marine Band in concert and a battle of welterweights in the squared circle being among the day's features.

For the benefit of high school students in all parts of the United States, Arthur M. Hyde, Secretary of Agriculture, will discuss "Agriculture as a Vocation," via the American School of the Air over KHJ at 11:30 o'clock this morning. The broadcast, which marks the end of the first term of this year's School of the Air series, will conclude with a short analysis of the week's news events by Dr. Charles Fleisher.

ARTHUR M. HYDE

In the land of the fantastic, the Sandman and Queen Titania of the fairyland of olden KHJ days will return to greet the children—KHJ at 6 tonight—scattering grains of dreamy sleepy stories to the lids that "can't hardly keep open."

The youngsters are to be feted again with the Alice in Toyland offering—KECA at 7:15 tonight—when Santa will whip his reindeer back to the North Pole.

So, there's a handful selected from an array of programs lacking anything in the way of international broadcast, but holding plenty of interest for the carpet-slipper-and-fireside brigade.
