BY JOHN S. DAGGETT

Let's run through the day's radio offerings, first selecting the New York Philharmonic Orchestra and then giving the high school lads a cheer at their football classic this afternoon. For the evening we have 101 good programs—so life's not such a tough proposition, after all.

Just about the time the kids maul the paper for the comic section—KHJ at 8 a.m.—tune in one the concert by the New York Philharmonic Orchestra, with Ernest Schelling at the baton. Delightful bits of music will be the "Allegro" from Haydn's "Clock Symphony;" the allegro motto movements from Mozart's Symphony in G minor; "The First Noel," sung by the boys of St. Thomas's Choir, and Beethoven's entire "First Symphony."

And just behind the shadow of the vanishing football season troops the high school championship fracas—Santa Ana High vs. Covina. If you can't attend the game listen in, for the boys will put up a brand of football that might show some of the college teams a thing or two. Both KHJ and KMTR will broadcast this event.

For the Christmas spirit, I think the City Hall Christmas pageant will bring the most of it to you.

And so: there are your high lights—a radio day worth while.
