Fan Fare

"True or False" copped itself a 52-week renewal contract effective with the Jan. 1 broadcast.

What happens to the extra time when Sunday's coffee hour drops to a half hour show on Sunday, Jan. 7, has been settled with "One Man's Family" moving into the vacated half hour.

George Jessel, emcee of the Friday night "Celebrity Program," will start his eastern picture producing venture soon and the first star probably will be Sylvia Sidney.

Hollywood's annual "March of Dimes" program, which is broadcast each year in the interests of infantile paralysis victims, will be heard Jan. 20.

Teddy Powell is forming a small jam group in his regular orchestra to be known as the Teddy Bears.

When Shirley Temple makes her first network appearance on the Screen Guild theater over CBS Christmas eve in Maurice Maeterlinck's "The Blue Bird," the program will be short-waved to Belgium so the author can listen in.

Frankie Masters and his radio orchestra go into Loew's State in New York City Jan. 4 as the start of a tour of theaters.

Franchon and Marco are dickering with Dave Elman for a stage edition of his "Hobby Lobby" radio show. Negotiations are now being carried on for a tryout of such an act in Cleveland during Christmas week. If the idea works out, "Hobby Lobby" may become a traveling unit, broadcasting each week from towns where the road show is booked.

Charles O'Connor, pictured here, is one of the few "exclusive" announcers in radio. He is at the microphone for the Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday night "Johnny Presents" programs — one over each major network each week—and announces for no one else except his present sponsor.
