State Farm Employment Sets Record

Although farm employment in the nation is at a low level, Wisconsin crop correspondents report more persons employed on their farms than for any December in recent years, the crop reporting service of the Wisconsin and United States departments of agriculture said today.

About 222 persons were employed per 100 farms of Wisconsin crop reporters on Dec. 1. A year ago total farm employment in the state was 217 persons per 100 farms. The increase is due mostly to the greater number of hired workers. Of the 222 persons employed per 100 farms 50 were hired laborers and 172 were family workers receiving no pay.

For the United States, employment on farms during November declined less than usual for the month. However, total employment of both family and hired workers on Dec. 1 was estimated to be 9,320,000, which is the smallest number of workers shown for any Dec. 1 since records have been kept. Farm employment decreased 1,442,000 persons from November to December, and compared with a year ago dropped about 162,000 workers.

Marian Martin

PATTERN 9215

Any little sprite would "bubble over" with gay spirits in this vivacious three-piece jumper outfit, Marian Martin's pattern 9215. The fresh, pretty blouse may be all dressed-up with ruffles or ric-rac and little velvet bows, or may be in tailored style with long or short sleeves. The jumper, smart with its double-breasted effect buttoning, opens right down the front so that the tiniest tot may dress herself easily. It's so simple to cut out—just four pieces including the straps, which are set on an easy, straight-grained slant. Let the Dutch-girl cap that buttons in back, top off the whole outfit with jaunty effect.

Pattern 9215 may be ordered only in children's sizes 2, 4, 6, 8, and 10. Size 6, jumper and hat, requires 2⅞ yards 35 in.; blouse, ¾ yard, contrast.

Send 15 cents in coins for this Marian Martin pattern. Be sure to write plainly your size, name, address, and style number.
